Blizzard Sweeps Midwest Plains; 10 Are Known Dead

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Blizzard conditions crippled the northern Plains today as a storm rolled slowly into Canada leaving much of mid-America covered with drifted snow, tornado litter and rain-swollen streams.

At least 10 deaths were attributed to one of the earliest major winter storms in Weather Bureau history—a turbulence that swept from Texas and Louisiana to Minnesota and Wisconsin, from the slopes of the Rockies to the Mississippi River.

The storm center moved to the Minnesota-Canadian border overnight and was expected to pass into western Ontario by evening, resulting in diminishing winds and generally improving conditions over the northern Plains late tonight.

Heavy snow drifting was reported over the Dakotas and northwestern Minnesota, making road travel hazardous.

Temperatures dropped to 21 below at Alamosa in south central Colorado, 12 below at Flagstaff, Ariz., and 6 below at Zuni, N. M. and Bryce Canyon, Utah. Low readings from Texas to Illinois were mostly in the 20s and 30s but the temperatures sagged to 7 above at Goodland, Kan., and 12 at Dahlhart, Tex.

Here is the storm picture, state by state:

The Dakotas—Snow continued Tuesday after piling up as much as 16 inches at Lemmon, S.D., by Monday night. At least eight inches of new snow was reported by Tuesday morning at Grand Forks, N. D., and three inches at Fargo. Three inches fell during the same period at Sioux Falls, S.D. At least one death blamed on storm in a South Dakota traffic accident.

Iowa, Nebraska—Tornado winds struck Monday in three areas of Iowa and as much as five inches of rain fell in the southeast part of the state. The winds damaged buildings in Elkader and farms near Grinnell and Ottumwa. Snow continued Monday night in central Nebraska.

Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois—Snow spread into Minnesota and the western border of Wisconsin early Tuesday. Gale force winds swept Minnesota Monday night, toppling trees and knocking out power and communications in several areas. Thirteen persons were treated in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area for minor cuts and bruises as they were hit by flying debris.

Chaplains Guide Some Executives

CLEVELAND (AP)—Some companies are employing "industrial chaplains" to guide executives in making decisions that are morally, as well as economically, right.

Harry W. Culbreth of Columbus, vice president of Nationwide Insurance Co., Monday night told the eighth annual assembly of the National Council of Churches' Christian Life and Work Division: "Business should become a channel through which God may perform God's own work in the world."

Culbreth, a Methodist lay leader, said there is growing recognition of the need for spiritual awareness on the part of executives. Many companies are incorporating value training in their management development programs, he said.

U.S. President in 1972-76 To Get Request from Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today asked a favor of the man who will occupy the White House from 1972 until 1976.

The favor: A possible appointment to the U.S. Air Force Academy for the son of Capt. Iven C. Kincheloe Jr., killed last July while testing an experimental F104 near Edmonds Air Force Base in California.

Kincheloe was flying that more nearly conventional plane during an interval in his preparations to pilot the X15 space-traveling aircraft.

The request recalled a similar gesture by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who proposed a West Point appointment for the young son of Capt. Colin P. Kelly, who was killed when his plane dived into a Japanese warship early in World War II.

The appointment is reserved for young Kelly.

Eisenhower presented to Kincheloe's widow today a letter on behalf of Iven III, now 19½ months old.

Mrs. Kincheloe, an attractive brunette from Oakland, Calif., got one copy of the letter. A duplicate

Colorado, Wyoming, Kansas, Missouri—Skies cleared in western Kansas and Colorado late Monday. Six to eight inches of snow covered the ground in western Kansas. Most mountain passes in Colorado and Wyoming reported snow-packed but open. Several tornadoes and heavy rains struck Monday in eastern Kansas and Missouri. Two highways deaths were blamed on storm in Colorado.

Arizona—Fourteen inches of snow lay at Flagstaff in north, two inches on desert of the south. Three Boy Scouts were missing in the snow-covered Santa Rita Mountains. About 25 other persons were reported snowbound.

Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico—Two persons died from tornado winds Monday in Oklahoma and Texas. The winds struck at Bowlegs, Okla., and in Texas from Gainesville to Wichita Falls and north to the Oklahoma border. Snows in Texas and Oklahoma panhandles turned to slush then froze Monday night, making driving hazardous. In New Mexico up to 10 inches of snow lay in the southern mountains, 4 to 6 inches elsewhere.

Cleveland Area Doused with Heavy Rains

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In Cuyahoga County Monday the heaviest November rainfall in 67 years was recorded. Rivers and streams were swollen, streets were flooded and basements submerged by 2.23 inches of rain.

Two boys died as a result of the rainstorm. Dale Richardson, 9, of Elyria Township, was swept into a Lorain County culvert and drowned. Patrick Keenan, 17, of Gates Mills, also was drowned when his boat upset in the rain-swollen Chagrin River.

A third boy drowned in Akron, but his death was not attributed to the heavy rain. Lemar Stegall, 5, fell into the Ohio Canal near Summit Beach in South Akron. He died before rescue workers pulled him from the three-foot-deep water.

The Richardson boy and his brothers, William Jr., 10, and Jerry, 4, were throwing bottles into the swift-running water draining into a culvert under Ohio 113. Dale lost his balance, fell into the water and was swept into the quarter-mile-long culvert.

His father, William Sr., 39, was summoned by the brothers. "I jumped in and tried to feel in the culvert," the father said, "but there was nothing there. It was too small for me to enter, but the water was sucking me down."

Dale's body was recovered 1,500 feet downstream from where he disappeared.

Keenan, who came from Ireland recently to tend horses on the Gates Mills' estate of Courtney Burton, decided to take a boat ride on the Chagrin River with Charles Shiffer, 20.

They launched the boat in swift current near U.S. 322.

The boat upset about 300 yards down the river. Shiffer caught hold of a log and made it to shore. Keenan disappeared. His body has not been recovered.

Embezzler To Face Ohio Charges Too

TROY, Ohio (AP)—A slight, graying clerk, whose weakness for antiques was apparently his undoing, faces state as well as federal charges.

After 38 years in the export division of the Hobart Manufacturing Co. here, 58-year-old Daniel Omer Tobias suddenly vanished in October, leaving company officials waiting at the big frame house where he kept antiques valued at as much as $300,000.

They had combed talk to him about company accounts.

Arrested in New Jersey Oct. 28, Tobias was charged with unlawfully causing to be transported from here a check for $3,250, knowing it was taken by fraud. He was held under $50,000 bond.

Another $50,000 bond was added Monday when the state of Ohio added a charge of larceny by trick in excess of $10,000. Tobias waived a preliminary hearing in Troy Municipal Court and was bound over to the Miami County Grand Jury.

He is accused of embezzling $375,000 between June, 1955, and Oct. 13, 1958, by cashing fictitious checks against the company and depositing the money in a New York bank. The money was used to buy antiques, authorities said.

Retired Miner, 70, Pleads Innocent In Fatal Shooting

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—James Sowards, 70, pleaded innocent in Municipal Court here today to a first-degree murder charge stemming from Sunday's fatal shooting of William Porter MacCombs, 61, in nearby Nelsonville.

The shooting occurred as the two retired coal miners walked on a street near public square. It climaxed an argument over rent that Sowards reportedly owed MacCombs. The argument started during an all-night poker party.

Officers said Sowards admitted shooting MacCombs twice with a .38 caliber revolver.

The charges were brought by the victim's son, Wilford, of Nelsonville.

Sowards' attorney requested a preliminary hearing, which was set for Tuesday. Sowards was ordered back to Athens County jail pending the hearing.

Filibuster Rule Change Talked

Nixon, Johnson Set For Senate Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) apparently are preparing to take the lead toward compromising an impending fight over the Senate's filibuster rule.

Nixon has told friends he is confident the present rule—which requires 66 affirmative votes to curb debate—is going to be changed as the first order of business when the newly enlarged Senate meets in January.

As presiding officer, the vice president has made it clear he will hold in order a motion to adopt new Senate rules. In the past, the Senate traditionally has carried its rules over from one Congress to the next.

Any such precedent-breaking decision by Nixon is certain to be appealed to the Senate and to be settled by a majority of its membership, raised to 98 by the addition of two new senators from Alaska.

The vice president evidently expects to go beyond such a ruling, however, and work actively toward some compromise that will make it easier to shut off the time-consuming talk which has blocked most civil rights legislation.

As an aspirant for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination, Nixon obviously is anxious to have a record of participation in any weakening of the filibuster rule.

Johnson, the Democratic leader in the Senate, has a big stake in preventing a party split on the issue.

Some Republicans, led by Sens. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey and Jacob K. Javits of New York, have proposed a rule under which two-thirds of those voting—in place of two-thirds of the entire Senate—could curb debate immediately and 50 senators could end talk that went on beyond 15 days.

Also favoring this idea are Democratic Sens. Paul Douglas of Illinois and Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, among others. These four served notice Monday they will battle any compromise that would fall short of an effective rule change.

Dave Beck's Sister Calls Him Benefactor During His Trial

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—The sister of former Teamsters President Dave Beck Sr. testified with sobs Monday that her brother was a benefactor who looked out for her security but rarely explained about finances.

"Sir, I don't remember when I first acquired those shares of stock," said Mrs. Rita Henne, 63, when questioned about 100 shares of Sick's Seattle Brewery Co. stock bought in her name.

"They were given to me by my brother to help me as security for the future because I work."

The widow, a year younger than Beck, wrung her hands and stopped occasionally to dry tears as she testified at his trial for evasion of $240,000 in income taxes in 1950-53.

Reds Seen Scoring Victory In German Propaganda War

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Embassy in East Berlin held its first news conference in four years today in an effort to dramatize Russian charges that West Berlin is a hotbed of Western spies against the Russian Communist regime.

The Soviets trotted out two Russians—a 29-year-old Soviet army lieutenant and a Moscow circus acrobat—who they claimed had deserted to the West, broadcast for the Americans and then had a change of heart.

Russian spokesman J. W. Beburor charged that a Western campaign of anti-Soviet propaganda and activity to undermine the Soviet government is "not only endangering the Soviet Union and the other Socialist (Communist) lands but also all humanity."

The news conference, attended by more than 300 Western and Communist newsmen, was another step in the new Soviet offensive to drive Allied occupation forces out of West Berlin.

Beburor said international tension would be eased if the West stopped trying to send Russian emigre spies into the Soviet Union.

Earlier today Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, charged that West Berlin was a hotbed of espionage activity against the Soviet bloc.

The Soviet campaign against the Allied occupation already has won a significant propaganda victory for Nikita Khrushchev.

The East German Communists are swarming.

The West Germans are worried. The United States, Britain and France have been forced to reappraise their refusal to deal with the East German satellite regime.

Khrushchev got these results with the verbal shock treatment. The Soviet premier demanded Nov. 10 that the Allies abandon their occupation of West Berlin. He promised to hand over Soviet occupation powers in East Berlin to the East Germans.

Pravda said today the Soviet government "is unshakable in its decision" to change the occupation status of Berlin. Western approval is not needed for the Kremlin to carry out its decisions, the Communist party newspaper added. Moscow radio broadcast the article.

So far the Russians and their East German satellite leaders have talked without acting. But the talk startled the West into re-examining its policies when Khrushchev hinted at a possible new Berlin blockade.

Khrushchev indicated he might hand over to the East Germans control over Allied access to their garrisons in West Berlin, across 110 miles of East Germany. This would force the Allies either to deal with the East Germans or to give up overland supply routes and resort to an airlift.

Reports from Washington and London speak of possible restricted contacts with the East Germans if they take over control of the Allied supply line.

Limited contacts might not imply diplomatic recognition. But the talk alone has been enough to yank East German leaders out of the dusty shadows. Since the Russians set up their regime nine years ago, the East Germans have been among the most despised and ignored satellite leaders in Eastern Europe.

Sudan General Names Himself As Premier

CAIRO (AP)—Gen. Ibrahim Abboud took over today as Premier and defense minister of Sudan.

The Sudanese Radio announced the formation of a new cabinet headed by the 58-year-old army commander who led the coup that deposed pro-Western Premier Abdullah Khalil Monday.

Abboud's deputy, Gen. Ahmed Abdel Wahab, became minister of the interior and local government of the million-square-mile African nation that sprawls between the Red Sea and the Sahara. In the cabinet are seven army officers and five civilians.

Abboud issued a decree giving himself "full legislative, executive and judicial powers."

Abboud seized power in Khartoum. Charging corruption and political instability, he ousted Khalil, dissolved Parliament and abolished political parties.

The general also named 12 officers, with himself as chairman, to a military council that becomes the armed forces' high command.

This looks similar to the old Revolution command council that governed Egypt in the days after the overthrow of King Farouk in 1952 and led, about two years later, to the emergence of Lt. Col.

Giant Atlas Rocket Fired Over Atlantic

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A mighty Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile thundered into space Monday night but the Air Force was silent today on the fate of the giant war rocket.

If the 100-ton missile hit its target, the United States took another great step forward in its campaign to develop a carrier that can drop a nuclear warhead on any target on earth.

There was official silence, however, after the Atlas blasted off at 11 p.m.

The three engines of the Atlas built up more than 350,000 pounds of thrust before the missile was released. The brilliance of its exhaust flames almost blinded newsmen watching from a platform three miles from the launching pad.

The thunder of the rocket's engines shook this area as the Atlas climbed straight upward for about a minute, then curved gracefully away to the southeast.

Four minutes later, it resembled a great star hanging in the sky. Thirty seconds later it vanished from view as its fuel burned out.

Reportedly, this Atlas was aimed for a target 3,000 miles down the Atlantic Ocean tracking range.

Frisco Archduchesses Face Delay in Collecting Fortune

VIENNA (AP)—It will be some time before two San Francisco archduchesses can collect the quarter of a million dollars they are in line to get from their Hapsburg father's estate.

Austria's administrative court still must rule long-pending action to set aside the Mexican divorce of the late Archduke Albrecht von Hapsburg-Lothringen obtained from the mother of his two daughters, Catherine Lorraine, a clerk in the San Francisco financial district.

The girls are Ildika, 16, and Sarolta, 18, who live in a modest flat over a San Francisco grocery. Ildika attends a convent school and Sarolta is a college freshman.

The San Francisco family moved closer to the fortune recently. The Austrian constitutional court ruled against the claim by the archduke's second wife that a constitutional law was violated when the Austrian Ministry of Justice decreed the Mexican divorce invalid. Now the administrative

Man Loses Hand Trying To Shoot Arresting Police

A Washington C. H. parolee and his 23-year-old nephew admitted robbing 11 stores in Dayton and several others in Columbus, Springfield and Cincinnati after they were arrested in connection with the crimes Monday, Dayton police said.

Paul Tipton, 36, paroled from an Indiana penitentiary to the address of 701 Willard St., and his nephew, Clark Eugene Tipton, Dayton, were seized separately by Dayton police acting on a tip.

The nephew's hand was amputated after officers shot him with a riot gun as he reached for a .38 caliber revolver in the glove compartment of the car he was driving when detectives stopped him.

He drove off after the blast hit him in the wrist and hand and abandoned the car about 20 blocks away after he had wrecked it, police said.

He attempted to run down a Miami River levee, where he was captured. Officers took him to St. Elizabeth Hospital where the hand was amputated.

The elder Tipton was also trailed by a Dayton police cruiser Monday. Cornered in a Dayton alley, he surrendered. Police found a .38 caliber revolver in his belt.

The two admitted the robberies in questioning after they were arrested. Detective Lt. Richard C. Grundisich said.

The uncle has a record of crimes in Washington C. H. dating back to 1936. He was sentenced to Boy's Industrial School three times during the next three years. He was also imprisoned in 1939 and 1940, on a different charge each year.

The crimes ranged from disorderly conduct, to auto theft to housebreaking and entering.

The girls are Ildika, 16, and Sarolta, 18, who live in a modest flat over a San Francisco grocery. Ildika attends a convent school and Sarolta is a college freshman.

The San Francisco family moved closer to the fortune recently. The Austrian constitutional court ruled against the claim by the archduke's second wife that a constitutional law was violated when the Austrian Ministry of Justice decreed the Mexican divorce invalid. Now the administrative court must rule whether any other law was violated.

"This will take some time," said the Vienna lawyer for the girls and their mother, Hans Christian Broda. "But there can be little doubt that the administrative court will arrive at a decision similar to that of the constitutional court."

Broda explained that the suit between the two "Hapsburg widows" was only to determine which had been the archduke's lawful wife when he died in 1955. There was no challenge in his will, which named his nephew, Baron Paul Wladibott-bassenheim, as his only heir.

Under Austrian law the heir must make adequate alimony payments to Albrecht's lawful widow and pay a "legitimate portion" to the two daughters.

The fortune, estimated at about a million dollars, consists of Vilburg Castle near Vienna and other large real estate holdings.

Broda said the girls' share, after deduction of expenses, would be about a fourth. He did not estimate how much their mother might collect.

Kincheloe had been selected shortly before his death to pilot the X15.

On Sept. 7, 1956, he had flown the X2, forerunner of the X15, to an altitude of 126,000 feet. That is the highest man has ever flown.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the youth—who was 17 last spring—has shown interest in West Point but has not let the White House know his final decision.

Hagerty said that Kelly would be nominated for the Air Force Academy, rather than West Point, if he prefers.

They had cometo talk to him about company accounts.

Arrested in New Jersey Oct. 28, Tobias was charged with unlawfully causing to be transported from here a check for $5,250, knowing it was taken by fraud. He was held under $50,000 bond.

Another $50,000 bond was added Monday when the state of Ohio added a charge of larceny by trick in excess of $10,000. Tobias waived a preliminary hearing in Troy Municipal Court and was bound over to the Miami County Grand Jury.

He is accused of embezzling $375,000 between June, 1955, and Oct. 13, 1958, by cashing fictitious checks against the company and depositing the money in a New York bank. The money was used to buy antiques, authorities said.

Retired Miner, 70, Pleads Innocent In Fatal Shooting

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — James Sowards, 70, pleaded innocent in Municipal Court here today to a first-degree murder charge stemming from Sunday's fatal shooting of William Porter MacCombs, 61, in nearby Nelsonville.

The shooting occurred as the two retired coal miners walked on a street near public square. It climaxed an argument over rent that Sowards reportedly owed MacCombs. The argument started during an all-night poker party.

Officers said Sowards admitted shooting MacCombs twice with a .38 caliber revolver.

The charges were brought by the victim's son, Wilford, of Nelsonville.

Sowards' attorney requested a preliminary hearing, which was set for Tuesday. Sowards was ordered back to Athens County jail pending the hearing.

Crystal Ball Correct About Man's Success

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Gypsy fortune teller peered intently into her crystal ball Monday and told the man he would be successful in his job.

He was.
The client was a plainclothes policeman, who promptly arrested her for predicting the future.

Mrs. Mildred Vlado, 28, was given a $100 fine by Magistrate Vernon H. Wiesand, suspended if she would put $50 into the poor box.

Filibuster Rule Change Talked

Nixon, Johnson Set For Senate Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) apparently are preparing to take the lead toward compromising an impending fight over the Senate's filibuster rule.

Nixon has told friends he is confident the present rule — which requires 66 affirmative votes to curb debate — is going to be changed as the first order of business when the newly enlarged Senate meets in January.

As presiding officer, the vice president has made it clear he will hold in order a motion to adopt new Senate rules. In the past, the Senate traditionally has carried its rules over from one Congress to the next.

Any such precedent-breaking decision by Nixon is certain to be appealed to the Senate and to be settled by a majority of its membership, raised to 98 by the addition of two new senators from Alaska.

The vice president evidently expects to go beyond such a ruling, however, and work actively toward some compromise that will make it easier to shut off the time-consuming talk which has blocked most civil rights legislation.

As an aspirant for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination, Nixon obviously is anxious to have a record of participation in any weakening of the filibuster rule.

Johnson, the Democratic leader in the Senate, has a big stake in preventing a party split on the issue.

Some Republicans, led by Sens. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey and Jacob K. Javits of New York, have proposed a rule under which two-thirds of those voting — instead of two-thirds of the entire Senate — could curb debate immediately and 50 senators could end talk that went on beyond 15 days.

Also favoring this idea are Democratic Sens. Paul Douglas of Illinois and Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, among others. These four served notice Monday they will battle any compromise that would fall short of an effective rule change.

Dave Beck's Sister Calls Him Benefactor During His Trial

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—The sister of former Teamsters President Dave Beck Sr. testified with sobs Monday that her brother was a benefactor who looked out for her security but rarely explained about finances.

"Sir, I don't remember when I first acquired those shares of stock," said Mrs. Rita Henne, 63, when questioned about 100 shares of Sick's Seattle Brewery Co. stock bought in her name.

"They were given to me by my brother to help me as security for the future because I work."

The widow, a year younger than Beck, wrung her hands and stopped occasionally to dry tears as she testified at his trial for evasion of $240,000 in income taxes in 1950-53.

Reds Seen Scoring Victory In German Propaganda War

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Embassy in East Berlin held its first news conference in four years today in an effort to dramatize Russian charges that West Berlin is a hotbed of Western spies against the Russian Communist regime.

The Soviets trotted out two Russians — a 29-year-old Soviet army lieutenant and a Moscow circus acrobat — who they claimed had deserted to the West, broadcast for the Americans and then had a change of heart.

Russian spokesman J. W. Beburv charged that a Western campaign of anti-Soviet propaganda and activity to undermine the Soviet government is "not only endangering the Soviet Union and the other Socialist (Communist) lands but also all humanity."

The news conference, attended by more than 300 Western and Communist newsmen, was another step in the new Soviet offensive to drive Allied occupation forces out of West Berlin.

Beburov said international tension would be eased if the West stopped trying to send Russian emigre spies into the Soviet Union.

Earlier today Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, charged that West Berlin was a hotbed of espionage activity against the Soviet bloc.

The East German Communists are swarming.

The West Germans are worried. The United States, Britain and France have been forced to reappraise their refusal to deal with the East German satellite regime.

Khrushchev got these results with the verbal shock treatment. The Soviet premier demanded Nov. 10 that the Allies abandon their occupation of West Berlin. He promised to hand over Soviet occupation powers in East Berlin to the East Germans.

Pravda said today the Soviet government "is unshakable in its decision" to change the occupation status of Berlin. Western approval is not needed for the Kremlin to carry out its decisions, the Communist party newspaper added. Moscow radio broadcast the article.

So far the Russians and their East German satellite leaders have talked without acting. But the talk startled the West into re-examining its policies when Khrushchev hinted at a possible new Berlin blockade.

Khrushchev indicated he might hand over to the East Germans control over Allied access to their garrisons in West Berlin, across 110 miles of East Germany. This would force the Allies either to deal with the East Germans or to give up overland supply routes and resort to an airlift.

The government seeks to show that the portly ex-union official

Reports from Washington and London speak of possible restricted contacts with the East Germans if they take over control of the Allied supply line.

Limited contacts might not imply diplomatic recognition. But the talk alone has been enough to yank East German leaders out of the dusty shadows. Since the Russians set up their regime nine years ago, the East Germans have been among the most despised and ignored satellite leaders in Eastern Europe.

Sudan General Names Himself As Premier

CAIRO (AP)—Gen. Ibrahim Abboud took over today as Premier and defense minister of Sudan.

The Sudanese Radio announced the formation of a new cabinet headed by the 58-year-old army commander who led the coup that deposed pro-Western Premier Abdullah Khalil Monday.

Abboud's deputy, Gen. Ahmed Abdel Wahab, became minister of the interior and local government of the million-square-mile African nation that sprawls between the Red Sea and the Sahara. In the cabinet are seven army officers and five civilians.

Abboud issued a decree giving himself "full legislative, executive and judicial powers."

Abboud seized power in Khartoum. Charging corruption and political instability, he ousted Khalil, dissolved Parliament and abolished political parties.

The general also named 12 officers, with himself as chairman, to a military council that becomes the armed forces' high command.

This looks similar to the old Revolution command council that governed Egypt in the days after the overthrow of King Farouk in 1952 and led, about two years later, to the emergence of Lt. Col.

Giant Atlas Rocket Fired Over Atlantic

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A mighty Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile thundered into space Monday night but the Air Force was silent today on the fate of the giant war rocket.

If the 100-ton missile hit its target, the United States took another great step forward in its campaign to develop a carrier that can drop a nuclear warhead on any target on earth.

There was official silence, however, after the Atlas blasted off at 11 p.m.

The three engines of the Atlas built up more than 350,000 pounds of thrust before the missile was released. The brilliance of its exhaust flames almost blinded newsmen watching from a platform three miles from the launching pad.

The thunder of the rocket's engines shook this area as the Atlas climbed straight upward for about a minute, then curved gracefully away to the southeast.

Four minutes later, it resembled a great star hanging in the sky. Thirty seconds later it vanished from view as its fuel burned out.

DiSalle, Top Dems Slated for Parley

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Gov. elect Michael V. DiSalle has called a meeting of Ohio's top Democratic leaders and office holders in Toledo Tuesday, Dec. 2, to discuss party policy.

The invitations extend from U.S. Sen. Frank Lausche and Sen. elect Stephen M. Young down through the 88 Democratic county chairmen.

Probably the most important item to be discussed will be the unofficial selection of the leaders of the Ohio House of Representatives and State Senate of the 103rd General Assembly which convenes a week before DiSalle takes office.

Frisco Archduchesses Face Delay in Collecting Fortune

VIENNA (AP)—It will be some time before two San Francisco archduchesses can collect the quarter of a million dollars they are in line to get from their Hapsburg father's estate.

Austria's administrative court still must rule long-pending action to set aside the Mexican divorce the late Archduke Albrecht von Hapsburg-Lothringen obtained from the mother of his two daughters, Catherine Lorraine, a clerk in the San Francisco financial district.

The girls are Ildika, 16, and Sarolta, 18, who live in a modest flat over a San Francisco grocery. Ildika attends a convent school and Sarolta is a college freshman.

The San Francisco family moved closer to the fortune recently. The Austrian constitutional court ruled against the claim by the archduke's second wife that a constitutional law was violated when the Austrian Ministry of Justice decreed the Mexican divorce invalid. Now the administrative

Man Loses Hand Trying To Shoot Arresting Police

A Washington C. H. parolee and his 23-year-old nephew admitted robbing 11 stores in Dayton and several others in Columbus, Springfield and Cincinnati after they were arrested in connection with the crimes Monday, Dayton police said.

Paul Tipton, 36, paroled from an Indiana penitentiary to the address of 701 Willard St., and his nephew, Clark Eugene Tipton, Dayton, were seized separately by Dayton police acting on a tip.

The nephew's hand was amputated after officers shot him with a riot gun as he reached for a .38 caliber revolver in the glove compartment of the car he was driving when detectives stopped him.

He drove off after the blast hit him in the wrist and hand and abandoned the car about 20 blocks away after he had wrecked it, police said.

He attempted to run down a Miami River levee, where he was captured. Officers took him to St. Elizabeth Hospital where the hand was amputated.

The elder Tipton was also trailed by a Dayton police cruiser Monday. Cornered in a Dayton alley, he surrendered. Police found a .38 caliber revolver in his belt.

The two admitted the robberies in questioning after they were arrested. Detective Lt. Richard C. Grundis led said.

The uncle has a record of crimes in Washington C. H. dating back to 1936. He was sentenced to Boy's Industrial School three times during the next three years. He was also imprisoned in 1939 and 1940, on a different charge each year.

The crimes ranged from disorderly conduct, to auto theft to housebreaking and entering.

Morocco's King Calls for U.S. To Quit Air Bases

RABAT (AP)—King Mohammed V of Morocco today called for the unconditional withdrawal of U.S. forces manning air bases in the country.

Speaking at Moroccan Independence Day ceremonies, he also called for the complete withdrawal of French and Spanish troops from Moroccan territory.

American troops in Morocco are at four big strategic Air Force bases, and the naval facility at Port Lyautey.

Negotiations have been started on the status of the bases. The United States has recognized that American forces will be withdrawn.

In the initial negotiations the United States asked to remain seven more years and it appeared for a time that a five-year compromise would be reached.

Mental Tests Scheduled for Cincy Cleric

Pacifist Refuses
To Pay Taxes Used
To Prepare for War

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three psychiatrists plan tests in the next two days for a controversial pacifist minister here, under indictment on an income tax charge.

He is the Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin who won't pay his taxes because he figures they go for weapons of war. War, he believes, is the greatest of evils.

The minister has been in jail here since an unusual court appearance last Friday. He had to be carried into court, refused to enter a plea and opposed efforts to assign him attorneys.

His actions caused U. S. District Judge John H. Druffel to order the mental examination. The judge appointed the second and third psychiatrists Monday.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin was indicted on a charge he failed to answer a summons for a conference with federal income tax officials.

He said he has paid only part of his income tax for 10 years because of his stand against arms and war.

He is pastor of West Cincinnati St. Barnabas Church, a joint Episcopal-Presbyterian congregation. He also heads a neighborhood house.

Leaders of the church have given him a vote of confidence. The Cincinnati Presbytery decided last Oct. 22 not to intervene in his church matters because of his legal difficulties.

Episcopal Bishop Henry Wise Hobson has had several private conferences with the Rev. Mr. McCrackin since the charge was filed against him.

Officials of the county American Legion unit have denounced the pastor because of his tax stand, saying his teachings are a "detrimental and dangerous example for the youth of Cincinnati."

The legionnaires decided to boycott the annual United Fund drive here this year because the minister's neighborhood house was a member.

But after he was charged in U. S. District Court, the United Fund suspended the neighborhood house, pending disposition of the charges.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin offered to resign his director's post, but trustees of the neighborhood house decided not to accept it. They decided to try to raise their own funds.

His passive resistance to the processes of federal court here extended to the first hearing on the charge. Ades carried him into that one, too.

But the second hearing, at which he was bound to the grand jury, was conducted without him when he failed to arrive and scheduled a prayer meeting at his church instead.

He has stated his viewpoint on taxes and the charge several times, said that if he were charged with a traffic violation, he'd respond readily.

But he said, "I cannot cooperate with carrying out of a law I believe is evil. It is my hatred of war that makes it impossible for me to obey court orders."

As for his taxes, the government has obtained part of its money by liens and other devices.

The conference on which the current charge is based was to talk over his taxes for 1955-1956.

Tiny Infant 'Doing Nicely'

Tiny little Kelly Jo Cox, who weighed not quite one pound and 14 ounces when she was born Sunday morning in Memorial Hospital here, got through her first night in Children's Hospital, Columbus, "very nicely."

Her mother, Mrs. Charles Cox, left the hospital Tuesday to go to her home, 317 Forest St.

Dr. James E. Rose, the family physician, said he was told by the physician at Children's Hospital that Kelly Jo had taken a little nourishment and appeared to be gaining strength.

Is she the littlest baby in the hospital? Dr. Rose said the answer to that question was "O my yes."

The nurses call her "Little Tiger."

WCH Man Hurt In Rt. 22 Crash

Emergency Treatment
Given 5 Others Here

H. G. Cockerill, 132 W. Temple St., was in "fair" condition in Memorial Hospital here Tuesday following a collision of his eastbound pickup truck with a westbound tractor-trailer outfit at 8:44 a. m. on Route 22 about a mile west of Williamsport.

The State Highway Patrol report said Cockerill's pickup skidded into the left lane of traffic in front of the truck when he attempted to stop to avoid hitting a car making a left turn in front of him.

Drivers of none of the vehicles involved were cited by the investigating officer.

GURDIE LEMASTER, Route 1, Jamestown, was in good condition Monday in the hospital, where he is being treated for injuries received when he was bounced off a tractor. His jaw was broken and he also suffered possible fractures of his ribs and collar bone when the back wheel of the tractor ran over him. The accident occurred Monday.

TREATED at the hospital Monday and released were two children and two men.

Larz Poole, 746 Eastern Ave., suffered a possible fracture of his left leg when he fell near his home.

Teresa Ackley, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ackley of 1110 Vine St., said she put some pebbles in her left ear and had to go to the hospital to have them removed.

Douglas Marcum, Dayton, went to the hospital to have a foreign object removed from his eye. He got it in there while hunting.

49 Selected For Parley On Children

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 49-member committee will represent Ohio at the national White House conference on children and youth in 1960.

Appointed Monday by Gov. C. William O'Neill, the committee will probably meet next year to discuss the state's youth problems and draft recommendations for the 1960 conference.

A Cleveland man, Harry T. Sealy, is chairman of the Ohio committee.

Other members include: Mrs. Walter Rentschler, Hamilton; Darwin Farber, Canton; Rex Settemire and Mrs. Oscar R. Jacobs, both of Lima; State Rep. Loretta C. Woods (R - Scioto), Portsmouth; Rhea B. Grange Urges Referenda for Every Crop
The Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) is getting underway in the rural parts of Fayette County under the sponsorship of the Granges and the Farm Bureau Councils.

Charles Cook, Bloomingburg, Pomeroy Grange master, is coordinating the efforts of the six subordinate Granges and Frank Alexander, Farm Bureau organizational director, is taking over the general leadership of the Farm Bureau Councils in the townships which are not covered by the Granges.

Practically every subordinate Grange in the county has met since the general county meeting in October and set up these committees:

Marshall Grange in Jefferson Township, William Copas, chairman;

Madison Good Will Grange; Madison Township, Cecil Reeb, chairman;

Good Hope Grange in Wayne Township, Neil Rowland, chairman;

Fayette Grange in Union Township, Frank Dill, chairman;

Selden Grange in Concord Township, Ralph Nisley, chairman, assisted by Barton Montgomer, Mrs. Roy Wipert, Mrs. Lorain Morter, Marion Waddle and W. W. Montgomery.

THE MARION MARVELS 4-H Club, with Mrs. Robert Kiever advisor, is taking over the CROP solicitation in Marion township. It will meet to organize for the work Wednesday evening in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

Leaders for Green Township are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Theobald.

Organization work will be completed in Paint and Jasper townships as soon as possible Alexander said.

Last year Fayette County gave $1,310.90 to the CROP campaign, while in 1953, the best year, the total was $2,145.68.

Grange participation can be in the form of either cash or crops, and it is pointed out that $1 will send 300 pounds of government surplus foods to needy people overseas.

Usually the rural solicitation is conducted during the three days prior to Thanksgiving Day.

County Extension Agent Montgomery is publicity chairman and William Purcell, of the Washington Savings Bank, is serving again as treasurer of this year's drive.

Stock Prices Back Down in Quiet Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market backed away quietly early this afternoon from the latest push to record highs.

Leading issues fell fractions to about two points. Scattered stocks bucked the trend with gains running to about a point.

Brokers said the decline looked like one more consolidation period in the market's seven-month climb to a succession of new peaks. The average has posted historic highs in five of the past six sessions.

The general run of business news was regarded as a bit less optimistic than recently.

Some losses were trimmed as the session continued. Goodyear trimmed about a point from a three-point setback. U. S. Steel reduced a one-point loss to a fraction. United Fruit pared an early three-point loss a bit.

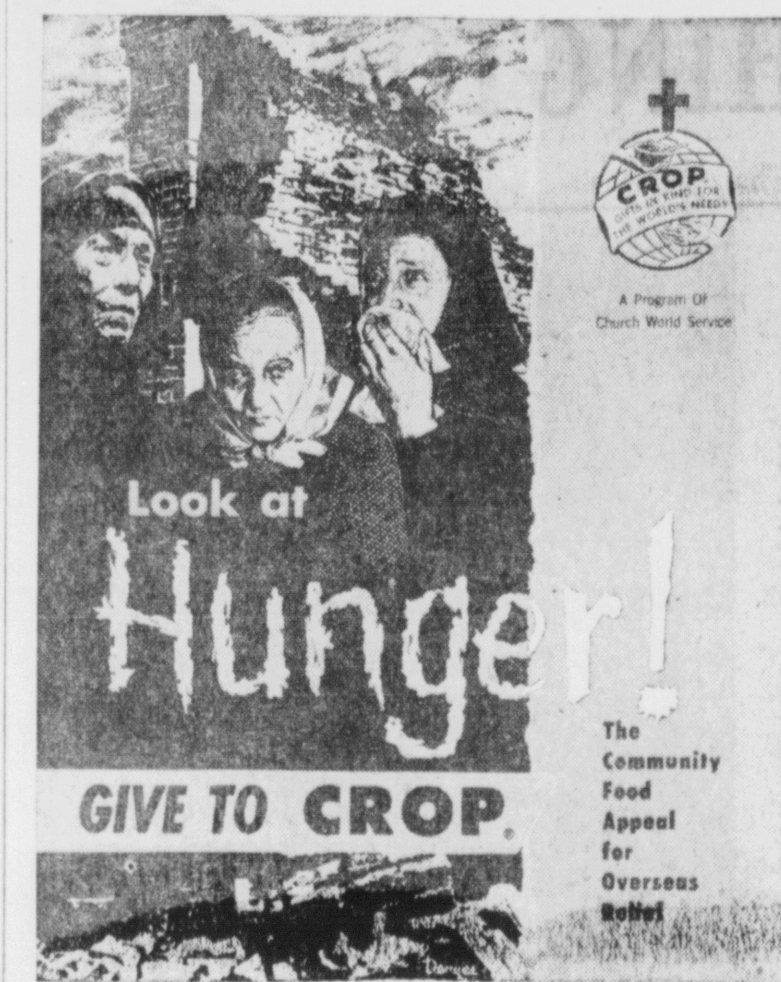

Eastman Kodak, after rebounding about two, weakened and showed a net loss of over a point. General Instrument, was down well over a point.

National Distillers raced ahead about two points.

Kennecott and Pfizer were off a point or more.

Stiff Turnpike Car Inspection Rounds Start

CLEVELAND (AP)—Special patrols were posted at three Ohio Turnpike toll gates Monday night in a search for drunk drivers and unsafe vehicles.

There were no arrests. But, in a three-hour period, warnings were issued for minor violations to 12 of 458 drivers inspected.

Most warnings were for defective lights. Drivers were given warning slips, which require vehicle defects be repaired within 48 hours.

The inspections were made at two interchanges near Cleveland — Brecksville and North Olmsted — and at Stony Ridge, near Toledo.

A wrong-way crash near Norwalk Nov. 7, which killed seven persons, prompted the spot checks. The driver of the wrong-way vehicle admitted to police he had been drinking.

Mental Tests Scheduled for Cincy Cleric

Pacifist Refuses
To Pay Taxes Used
To Prepare for War

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three psychiatrists plan tests in the next two days for a controversial pacifist minister here, under indictment on an income tax charge.

He is the Rev. Maurice F. McCracken who won't pay his taxes because he figures they go for weapons of war, he believes, is the greatest of evils.

The minister has been in jail here since an unusual court appearance last Friday. He had to be carried into court, refused to enter a plea and opposed efforts to assign him attorneys.

His actions caused U. S. District Judge John H. Druffel to order the mental examination. The judge appointed the second and third psychiatrists Monday.

The Rev. Mr. McCracken was indicted on a charge he failed to answer a summons for a conference with federal income tax officials.

He said he has paid only part of his income tax for 10 years because of his stand against arms and war.

He is pastor of West Cincinnati St. Barnabas Church, a joint Episcopal-Methodist congregation. He also heads a neighborhood house.

Leaders of the church have given him a vote of confidence. The Cincinnati Presbytery decided last Oct. 22 not to intervene in his church matters because of his legal difficulties.

Episcopal Bishop Henry Wise Hobson has had several private conferences with the Rev. Mr. McCracken since the charge was filed against him.

Officials of the county American Legion unit have denounced the pastor because of his tax stand, saying his teachings are a "detrimental and dangerous example for the youth of Cincinnati."

The legionnaires decided to boycott the annual United Fund drive here this year because the minister's neighborhood house was a member.

But after he was charged in U. S. District Court, the United Fund suspended the neighborhood house, pending disposition of the charges.

The Rev. Mr. McCracken offered to resign his director's post, but trustees of the neighborhood house decided not to accept it. They decided to try to raise their own funds.

His passive resistance to the processes of federal court here extended to the first hearing on the charge. Ades carried him into that one, too.

But the second hearing, at which he was bound to the grand jury, was conducted without him when he failed to arrive and scheduled a prayer meeting at his church instead.

He has stated his viewpoint on taxes and the charge several times, said that if he were charged with a traffic violation, he'd respond readily.

But he said, "I cannot cooperate with carrying out of a law I believe is evil. It is my hatred of war that makes it impossible for me to obey court orders."

As for his taxes, the government has obtained part of its money by liens and other devices.

The conference on which the current charge is based was to talk over his taxes for 1955-1956.

Tiny Infant 'Doing Nicely'

Tiny little Kelly Jo Cox, who weighed not quite one pound and 14 ounces when she was born Sunday morning in Memorial Hospital here, got through her first night in Children's Hospital, Columbus, "very nicely."

Her mother, Mrs. Charles Cox, left the hospital Tuesday to go to her home, 317 Forest St.

Dr. James E. Rose, the family physician, said he was told by the physician at Children's Hospital that Kelly Jo had taken a little nourishment and appeared to be gaining strength.

Is she the littlest baby in the hospital? Dr. Rose said the answer to that question was "O my yes."

The nurses call her "Little Tiger."

WCH Man Hurt In Rt. 22 Crash

Given 5 Others Here

H. G. Cockerill, 132 W. Temple St., was in "fair" condition in Memorial Hospital here Tuesday following a collision of his eastbound pickup truck with a westbound tractor-trailer outfit at 8:44 a. m. on Route 22 about a mile west of Williamsport.

The State Highway Patrol report said Cockerill's pickup skidded into the left lane of traffic in front of the truck when he attempted to stop to avoid hitting a car making a left turn in front of him.

Drivers of none of the vehicles involved were cited by the investigating officer.

GURDIE LEMASTER, Route 1, Jamestown, was in good condition Monday in the hospital, where he is being treated for injuries received when he was bounced off a tractor. His jaw was broken and he also suffered possible fractures of his ribs and collar bone when the back wheel of the tractor ran over him. The accident occurred Monday.

TREATED at the hospital Monday and released were two children and two men.

Larz Poole, 746 Eastern Ave., suffered a possible fracture of his left leg when he fell near his home.

TERESA ACKLEY, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ackley of 1110 Vine St., said she put some pebbles in her left ear and had to go to the hospital to have them removed.

Douglas Marcum, Dayton, went to the hospital to have a foreign object removed from his eye. He got it in there while hunting.

Grange Urges Referenda for Every Crop

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—The National Grange proposed today that producers of each farm commodity be allowed to choose through referenda the type of farm-aid program they deem best suited to the commodity.

The farm organization has suggested in convention resolutions that such programs be managed by organized producers, under guidance of the government.

The Grange declared that agriculture faces the prospect of overproduction for years to come. Hence, it said, effective ways must be found to adjust production to markets or else farmers will suffer economically.

"We reaffirm the Grange position favoring self-help programs developed along commodity-commodity lines. Therein lies the power to manage our production and our marketing in such a manner as to provide consumers with an abundance without overabundance at prices reasonable to both producers and consumers," the resolution said.

This Grange approach to the farm problem has not found favor with Eisenhower administration farm officials.

Announce Completion Of High St. Sewer

The High St. storm sewer has been laid and is ready for use, Clyde Smith, streets and sewer superintendent, announced Monday.

The 30 inch sewer, costing approximately $5,000, stretches from Paint Creek to Newburg St. on the west side of High St. It will serve the southwest corner of the city, Smith said.

Started in August, the sewer is about 1,400 feet long, he said.

Sudan General

Gamal Abdel Nasser as Egypt's leader.

Release of all politicians detained in the coup was announced in Khartoum, the Sudanese capital.

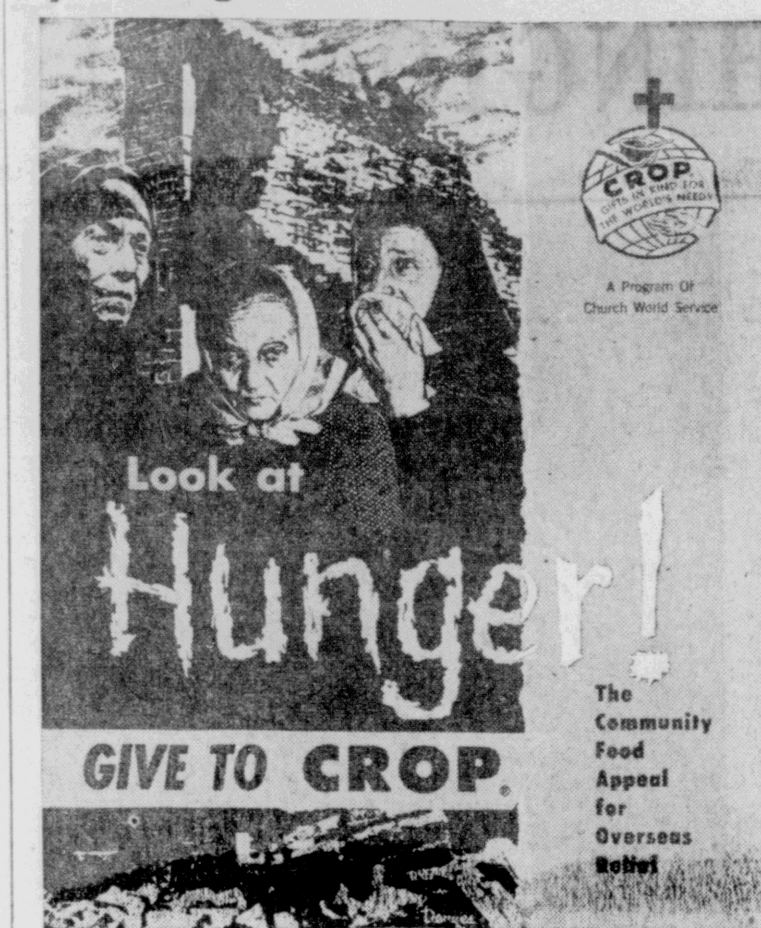

Without specifically mentioning Khalil, the army indicated he was at liberty.

The army command said all is quiet throughout the nation.

The Cairo press, controlled by President Nasser of the United Arab Republic, said the coup would not affect relations between Sudan and the U.A.R.

The newspaper Al Ahram quoted American news agency reports from London that British experts thought the coup was to forestall any Sudanese concessions to Nasser.

CROP Campaign Is Under Way By Granges and FB Councils

The Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) is getting underway in the rural parts of Fayette County under the sponsorship of the Granges and the Farm Bureau Councils.

Charles Cook, Bloomingburg, Pomona Grange master, is coordinating the efforts of the six subordinate Granges and Frank Alexander, Farm Bureau organizational director, is taking over the general leadership of the Farm Bureau Councils in the townships which are not covered by the Granges.

Practically every subordinate Grange in the county has met since the general county meeting in October and set up these committees:

Marshall Grange in Jefferson Township, William Copas, chairman; Madison Good Will Grange; Madison Township, Cecil Re cob, chairman;

Good Hope Grange in Wayne Township, Neil Rowland, chairman; Fayette Grange in Union Township, Frank Dill, chairman;

Selden Grange in Concord Township, Ralph Nisley, chairman, assisted by Barton Montgomer, Mrs. Roy Wipert, Mrs. Lorain Morter, Marion Waddle and W. W. Montgomery.

THE MARION MARVELS 4-H Club, with Mrs. Robert Klever as advisor, is taking over the CROP solicitation in Marion township. It will meet to organize for the work Wednesday evening in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

Leaders for Green Township are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Theobald. Organization work will be completed in Paint and Jasper townships as soon as possible Alexander said.

Last year Fayette County gave $1,310.90 to the CROP campaign, while in 1953, the best year, the total was $2,145.68.

Grange participation can be in the form of either cash or crops, and it is pointed out that $1 will send 300 pounds of government surplus foods to needy people overseas.

Usually the rural solicitation is conducted during the three days prior to Thanksgiving Day.

County Extension Agent Montgomery is publicity chairman and William Purcell, of the Washington Savings Bank, is serving again as treasurer of this year's drive.

Stock Prices Back Down in Quiet Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market backed away quietly early this afternoon from the latest push to record highs.

Leading issues fell fractions to about two points. Scattered stocks bucked the trend with gains running to about a point.

Brokers said the decline looked like one more consolidation period in the market's seven-month climb to a succession of new peaks. The average has posted historic highs in five of the past six sessions.

The general run of business news was regarded as a bit less optimistic than recently.

Some losses were trimmed as the session continued. Goodyear trimmed about a point from a three-point setback. U. S. Steel reduced a one-point loss to a fraction. United Fruit pared an early three-point loss a bit.

Eastman Kodak, after rebounding about two, weakened and showed a net loss of over a point. General Instrument, was down well over a point.

National Distillers raced ahead about two points. Kennecott and Pfizer were off a point or more.

U. S. government bonds were steady.

Stiff Turnpike Car Inspection Rounds Start

CLEVELAND (AP)—Special patrols were posted at three Ohio Turnpike toll gates Monday night in a search for drunk drivers and unsafe vehicles.

There were no arrests. But, in a three-hour period, warnings were issued for minor violations to 12 of 458 drivers inspected.

Most warnings were for defective lights. Drivers were given warning slips, which require vehicle defects be repaired within 48 hours.

The inspections were made at two interchanges near Cleveland—Brecksville and North Olmsted—and at Stoney Ridge, near Toledo.

A wrong-way crash near Norwalk Nov. 7, which killed seven persons, prompted the spot checks. The driver of the wrong-way vehicle admitted to police he had been drinking.

CHESTER COLLINS

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)
CHESTER COLLINS is being sought by the FBI for unlawful flight to avoid confinement.

On Feb. 16, 1957, he was sentenced to ten years imprisonment in Florida State Prison for assault on a woman in the second degree. Collins escaped from a Florida State Prison Camp at Fort Pierce, Fla., on June 19, 1957. An escape warrant was filed in the Sheriff's office, St. Lucie County, Florida, the same day.

A complaint was filed before a U. S. Commissioner at West Palm Beach, Fla., on Aug. 12, 1957, charging Collins with fleeing the State of Florida to avoid confinement after conviction for the crime of attempted murder.

With an alias of Chester Allen, the fugitive has been employed as a farm worker, laborer and tractor driver.

Collins has been convicted previously for assault, breaking and entering, discharging firearms in a public place and assault with intent to commit murder in the second degree. He has been armed in the past. He has been convicted for a brutal crime and should be considered extremely dangerous.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 45; Born, Dothan, Ala. (not supported by birth records); Height, 5 feet 8½; Weight, 176; Build, medium; Hair, black, graying; Eyes, dark brown; Complexion, medium dark brown. Scars and marks: scar center of forehead, two cut scars left eyebrow, growth behind right ear which causes ear to protrude, two vaccination scars left arm, scar outer left forearm, cut scar back of left hand, several small scars back of right hand, scar outside base of right little finger, large cut scar on inside of right leg.

Information concerning fugitive should be telephoned to the nearest FBI office.

Hollywood Matrons All Agog About Etiquette for Queen

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — How do you converse with a queen? Can a princess dance with movie stars? Where does royalty sit in a ballroom?

These are some of the hundreds of issues a group of Hollywood matrons have been wrestling with for the past three months. The climax of their struggle comes this Saturday night when the local chapter of WAIF, the international child adoption society, presents its annual imperial ball. Their guests: Queen Frederika and Princess Sophia of Greece.

You don't just ask a queen to dinner and let it go at that. Actress Coleen Gray, local WAIF president, found that out.

"Everything has to be planned, down to the smallest detail," she explained. "We have consulted the State Department. We have read 15 etiquette books. We have consulted the queen's grand mistress de la court."

"So far we have had only one goof. We sent out the invitations reading 'Her Majesty Frederika, Queen of Greece.' The State Department said that would be all right, rather than 'Queen of the Hellenes' which people might not understand. The court reminded us of the correct title. At least the State Department shared in our goof."

Coleen's struggle began last June. The Chrysler Corp. agreed to co-sponsor the ball if the WAIF ladies could secure a bona fide member of royalty as guest. Coleen and her aides worked 12 hours composing a letter to Queen Frederika. It was sent according to proper procedure through the American ambassador in Athens.

Weeks, months went by and no answer came. After repeated cables, the word finally returned: Yes, the ball would coincide nicely with the Queen's unofficial visit to the U. S.

"Then the work began," Coleen said. "We had to find out how to do everything."

She had to find out if the Queen would dance. The answer was no. Would the princess like to dance? Yes? How would the dancing start? The princess would dance alone on the floor with the leading dignitary, presumably Gov. Goodwin Knight. Could she dance with movie stars or would she prefer civic figures? Movie stars would be all right if they were "comme il faut" (acceptable).

Coleen has been frantic with the meticulous arrangements and has been boning up on ancient and modern Greek history on the unlikely chance that the Queen might want to talk about same. Despite the hubbub, Coleen admits to enjoying it.

"I'm just a farm girl from Minnesota," she said dreamily. "Imagine me sitting next to the Queen!"

Whisky One Ingredient In Old Mending Cement

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Dan Payne recently discovered a recipe book used by her grandmother.

She said the recipes were little different from today but the miscellaneous section was a starter. Among the suggestions to aid the housewife was a recipe for making mending cement.

It called for water, powdered glue, white lead and whisky. The whisky, it explained, was to keep it fluid in cold weather.

Christmas Gift Suggestions

Personalized scotch tape and dispenser. Name and address printed 300 times. Use on mail, books, records, sports equipment, etc. $2.00 a roll. Sold for benefit of Camp Fire Girls. Phone 21751 or any member of Board. Orders for Christmas must be in by December 1-7.

College Football Having Its Troubles

There are a lot of rumors and much more than the usual criticism in connection with football teams, especially college teams, in various places across this country. This seems to lead to the thought that many sport fans are taking their football more seriously, perhaps too much so.

Doubtless there never was a devotee of football fan who took defeat of a favorite team with calmness. In recent years displays of temper by spectators, coaches and ardent fans have reflected more than minor lapses in self-control and sportsmanship. Some high school games have shown evidence of the same thing.

Woody Hayes of Ohio State is in the midst of some of this, although he has conducted himself better than a lot of other coaches, and certainly better than a lot of critics.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan of the University of Michigan seems to have been the target of many fans. His release as coach has been brought about although he was given another position in the university's athletic department.

Both Hayes and Oosterbaan have made good records in most past years, but too many of the average "loud" fans want a winner all the time or a coaching change.

Coach Terry Brennan of Notre Dame is another about whom stories of a "needed change" are heard. There are many others.

The pressure on most coaches is appalling at times; it is little wonder that now and then some of them let their tempers get away from them. Some coaches have been hanged in effigy this year.

The demand for good spectator college football has increased greatly. At Ohio State attendance records are being broken. The same is true of several other colleges with good teams. TV with its Saturday "Game of the Week" along with widespread radio hookups are other reasons for increased interest.

The question is being raised whether the spectators, including the "grandstand grads" are going to assume more and more dominance of "quarterbacking" roles and whether this will bring conditions for better or worse on the college gridiron which has become such a big part of the American sports scene.

Most observers are beginning to insist that while college football has virtually become big business, a college sports program is the last place where proper standards of ethical behavior should become so broken as to be frequent subjects of extremely heated controversy.

Some mighty good citizens have come from the ranks of both college and high school football. The sport must be kept clean from too frequent incidents of violence and vile tempers if it is to continue as a growing part of school and college programs. And that includes also the spectators who sometimes show an inane lack of how to behave themselves.

Diet and Health Taste the Medicine You Give Your Child

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

I THINK all you parents should taste the various medicines and tonics which we doctors prescribe for your children. You will be pleasantly surprised at the rather pleasing flavor most of them have.

This will be a big help next time you have to give some to the youngsters.

Reject It

Kids just naturally dislike doing anything which seems distasteful to their parents. And when Mom or Pop makes a wry face when giving them some medicine, they tend to reject it.

A youngster who doesn't want to take his medicine can kick up quite a fuss, as most of you already know.

Childhood Experiences

I realize that you adults are accustomed to taking disagreeable-tasting medicines. You undoubtedly recall some of your own childhood experiences with castor oil, cod liver oil and the like.

But don't pass this distaste on to your children. There are relatively few unpalatable forms of children's medicine on the market today. We have aspirin of various flavors, cough medicine that tastes like fruit and even vitamins now taste as good as candy.

They Enjoy It

Even those medicines or tonics which we adults find unpleasant to the taste often are taken by small children without any fuss. You may find it difficult to believe, but many babies actually seem to enjoy taking cod liver oil.

Cooperate with your youngster as much as is practical when he must take medicine. If he prefers it in a spoon or a certain type glass, go along with him. Perhaps he will want it mixed with applesauce or some other food. If your doctor approves, it should be okay with you, too.

No Heroics

Whatever you do, don't make taking medicine a heroic deed. Even if he downs it without a fuss, don't praise him for his "bravery." Don't let him think that taking medicine is any different than drinking his milk or eating his prunes.

The most important thing to remember is to stress the fact that while you are willing to give him his medicine in the most pleasing form, he is going to take it one way or another.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A.A.: Is there a difference between seasonal hay fever and allergic rhinitis?

Answer: Seasonal hay fever which occurs in the spring, summer or fall is caused almost entirely by inhalants such as plant pollens and mold spores which are present in the air during these seasons. Allergic rhinitis may occur at all times of the year, since it is caused by non-seasonal allergens such as dust, feathers, animal hairs and foods, or by bacterial infections.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A SECTION FOREMAN on the Erie Railroad was well known for driving his men hard. He stamped over to a veteran member of his squad and roared, "How often must I tell you to lift your pick higher off the ground?"

"It's you I'm trying to protect, sir," was the diplomatic reply. "You hang right over my shoulder so much, I'm afraid of hitting you in the eye!"

The teacher of a sixth-grade class in Brooklyn couldn't understand why all the kids began hoarding pennies at the same time. Then she spotted the new sign in a stamp and coin shop a block away: "We pay $25 for 1900 pennies."

Have you heard about the big-shot business magnate who was on the verge of committing suicide until he discovered that the cleaning woman had hung the graph behind his desk upside down?

Suburbanite Is Homesick

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — Now is the time for all good city dwellers to come to the aid of the suburbanite.

Not as a matter of philanthropy — but as a matter of enlightened self-interest.

America's great cities are threatened by many things—ranging from smog to traffic jams and slum-blight. But those of us who love city life are aware of a new peril.

It is in the form of an exodus from the suburbs back to the city, a reversal of the huge postwar migration of population out from the center of the city to its fringes.

Ronald Halfacre, the typical suburbanite, now wants to come back home. He has discovered many a worm in his paradise out where the fresh air begins.

He moved to the suburbs a dozen years ago full of disdain for the big city and looking for a better way of life.

"Out there in the ozone zone things are different," Ronald said. "The schools are better. You live a healthier life, nearer to nature. Out there a neighbor's a real pal." For some years Ronald actually believed all that guff himself.

But time has caught up with Ronald and his vision of a frontier utopia just beyond the city's pale.

His taxes have gone up, up, up. He has to ride an auto, a train and a bus to reach his job. The schools in the suburbs are more crowded than those in the city.

His wife complains he is nothing but a nuisance for him and the kids. He needed no car in the city. He has to have two in the suburbs.

"There's nothing to do out here. In the city there was always something to do. There aren't even any parks out here. A city's got parks," the children complain.

Ronald himself is weary of traveling from one outdoor barbecue pit to another at mealtime. He is weary of being stung by mosquitoes and local repair men.

That healthy outdoor life also has begun to undermine his system. He is tired of digging his way out of snowdrifts in winter; the joy of do-it-yourself wallpapering has palled. He is bored with the gossip of nosy neighbors, who seem to regard his home left as a kind of neighborhood television program.

It is no wonder that Ronald Halfacre pines for the comfort, security and serenity of the city, where a man can solve any emergency by a phone call to the janitor.

That is why it is high time for us who remained steadfastly loyal to our cities to organize now a Society for the Amelioration of the Condition of Suburbanites.

Do you know a Ronald Halfacre? Why not mail him a United ham to help him over Thanksgiving? Give him a pat on the back; send him a "get well" card.

Write him a letter saying, "It's you pioneering fellows out there on the frontier of civilization who are doing so much to keep the American spirit alive. I know you won't let the nation down by giving up."

If necessary, even lend him money to keep him out there. For 10 million Ronald Halfacres ever abandon the suburbs at once and start moving back, city life will again become as noisy, crowded and uncomfortable as — well, as it now has become in the suburbs.

That Prize-Winning Essay

By George Sokolsky

Some time ago, I wrote a piece referring to an essay written by a young lady in the Menlo-Atherton High School in Atherton, Calif., and which I picked up from a British newspaper.

I felt it to be my obligation to call attention to such an essay which contained this sentence:

"We must prepare for Russian occupation of the United States by a major change of attitude of the American people."

I have now received a letter from Nicholas M. Nugent, principal, Menlo-Atherton High School. He does not deny that the essay was written and that its author received the grade of "A." He states that each student must write a term paper dealing with United States history between 1870 and 1958. Nugent writes:

"The student must demonstrate a fundamental comprehension or factual knowledge of his topic. In other words, the student must examine and understand the historical data on his subject. In addition, the pupil must analyze this data and come up with an original solution. This solution would not necessarily be the most practical one but would demonstrate to the teacher how much thinking the student had done on his topic."

Miss Kathryn Larson, in pursuance of this requirement, came up with this solution: "We must prepare for Russian occupation of the United States by a major change of attitude of the American people. The plan must not involve violence — but non-violent organization. A strong, national, co-ordinate civil disobedience campaign would be put into effective use. All official Russian orders would be universally disobeyed. We would remain independent and invincible."

Nugent writes:

"The grade Miss Larson received was 'A.'"

Some high school games have shown evidence of the same thing.

Woody Hayes of Ohio State is in the midst of some of this, although he has conducted himself better than a lot of other coaches, and certainly better than a lot of critics.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan of the University of Michigan seems to have been the target of many fans. His release as coach has been brought about although he was given another position in the university's athletic department.

Both Hayes and Oosterbaan have made good records in most past years, but too many of the average "loud" fans want a winner all the time or a coaching change.

Coach Terry Brennan of Notre Dame is another about whom stories of a "needed change" are heard. There are many others.

The pressure on most coaches is appalling at times; it is little wonder that now and then some of them let their tempers get away from them. Some coaches have been banged in effigy this year.

The demand for good spectator college football has increased greatly. At Ohio State attendance records are being broken. The same is true of several other colleges with good teams. TV with its Saturday "Game of the Week" along with widespread radio hookups are other reasons for increased interest.

The question is being raised whether the spectators, including the "grandstand grads" are going to assume more and more dominance of "quarterbacking" roles and whether this will bring conditions for better or worse on the college gridiron which has become such a big part of the American sports scene.

Most observers are beginning to insist that while college football has virtually become big business, a college sports program is the last place where proper standards of ethical behavior should become so broken as to be frequent subjects of extremely heated controversy.

Some mighty good citizens have come from the ranks of both college and high school football. The sport must be kept clean from too frequent incidents of violence and vile tempers if it is to continue as a growing part of school and college programs. And that includes also the spectators who sometimes show an inane lack of how to behave themselves.

Suburbanite Is Homesick

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Now is the time for all good city dwellers to come to the aid of the suburbanite.

Not as a matter of philanthropy — but as a matter of enlightened self-interest.

America's great cities are threatened by many things — ranging from smog to traffic jams and slum-blight. But those of us who love city life are aware of a new peril.

It is in the form of an exodus from the suburbs back to the city, a reversal of the huge postwar migration of population out from the center of the city to its fringes. Ronald Halfacre, the typical suburbanite, now wants to come back home. He has discovered many a worm in his paradise out where the fresh air begins.

He moved to the suburbs a dozen years ago full of disdain for the big city and looking for a better way of life.

"Out there in the ozone zone things are different," Ronald said. "The schools are better. You live a healthier life, nearer to nature. Out there a neighbor's a real pal."

For some years Ronald actually

believed all that guff himself.

But time has caught up with Ronald and his vision of a frontier utopia just beyond the city's pale.

His taxes have gone up, up, up. He has to ride an auto, a train and a bus to reach his job. The schools in the suburbs are more crowded than those in the city.

His wife complains she is nothing but a chauffeur for him and the kids. He needed no car in the city. He has to have two in the suburbs.

"There's nothing to do out here. In the city there was always something to do. There aren't even any parks out here. A city's got parks," the children complain.

Ronald himself is weary of traveling from one outdoor barbecue pit to another at mealtime. He is weary of being stung by mosquitoes and local repair men.

That healthy outdoor life also has begun to undermine his system. He is tired of digging his way out of snowdrifts in winter; the joy of do-it-yourself wallpapering has palled. He is bored with the gossip of nosy neighbors, who seem to regard his home left as a kind of neighborhood television program.

It is no wonder that Ronald Halfacre pines for the comfort, security and serenity of the city, where a man can solve any emergency by a phone call to the janitor.

That is why it is high time for us who remained steadfastly loyal to our cities to organize now a Society for the Amelioration of the Condition of Suburbanites.

Do you know a Ronald Halfacre? Why not mail him a tinny ham to help him over Thanksgiving? Give him a pat on the back; send him a "get well" card.

Write him a letter saying, "It's your pioneering fellows out there on the frontier of civilization who are doing so much to keep the American spirit alive. I know you won't let the nation down by giving up."

If necessary, even lend him money to keep him out there. For if 10 million Ronald Halfacres ever abandon the suburbs at once and start moving back, city life will again become as noisy, crowded and uncomfortable as — well, as it now has become in the suburbs.

That Prize-Winning Essay

By George Sokolsky

Some time ago, I wrote a piece referring to an essay written by a young lady in the Menlo-Atherton High School in Atherton, Calif., and which I picked up from a British newspaper.

I felt it to be my obligation to call attention to such an essay which contained this sentence:

"We must prepare for Russian occupation of the United States by a major change of attitude of the American people."

I have now received a letter from Nicholas M. Nugent, principal, Menlo-Atherton High School. He does not deny that the essay was written and that its author received the grade of "A." He states that each student must write a term paper dealing with United States history between 1870 and 1958. Nugent writes:

"The student must demonstrate a fundamental comprehension or factual knowledge of his topic. In other words, the student must examine and understand the historical data on his subject. In addition, the pupil must analyze this data and come up with an original solution. This solution would not necessarily be the most practical one but would demonstrate to the teacher how much thinking the student had done on his topic."

Miss Kathryn Larson, in pursuance of this requirement, came up with this solution:

"We must prepare for Russian occupation of the United States by a major change of attitude of the American people. The plan must not involve violence — but non-violent organization. A strong, national, co-ordinate civil disobedience campaign would be put into effective use. All official Russian orders would be universally disobeyed. We would remain independent and invincible."

Nugent writes:

"The grade Miss Larson received

(100 per cent) did not depend on whether her solution was correct or incorrect but rather was based on the student's ability to gather and to present the data."

Then he writes me:

"It is to be regretted that the publishing of your article, without a prior investigation of the facts, has brought much unfair criticism to the teacher and the school. If an investigation had been made, it would have been more in keeping with the American tradition of examining both sides of the question before judgment was rendered."

On the contrary, I made the most thorough investigation I regard as necessary. I read the essay, as printed in a British newspaper, which said that the young lady got an "A" for it and that has proved to be true. That, I think, is all that is newsworthy in this situation.

Nugent makes the point that the essay was read to the class and that some students vigorously challenged her viewpoint.

So, what has that to do with anything? Besides she got an "A" for a term paper which required "a fundamental comprehension or factual knowledge of his topic."

What factual knowledge brought this young lady to the conclusion that Soviet Russia can and will occupy the United States?

It strikes me that if English words mean what they say the young lady was given an "A" in fulfillment of the requirements indicated in the paragraph quoted above.

I fear that the pedagogues concerned with this problem do not understand the criticism which they find inconvenient and troublesome. The criticism is that history must be taught incorrectly if students believe that we already need to prepare for our defeat and for what we should do when the Russians and Red Chinese take us over.

In a word, I do not blame Miss Larson; I do blame a materialistic, secularized, idealistic system of education which is poisoning the minds and removing the spirit from our youth. This is evident particularly when one speaks of the prospect of war.

There is very little robust denial of cowardice; there is rather the assumption that a deal can be made with Khrushchev, now that Stalin is dead. A nation of cowards dies a cowardly death.

That was the point of the prior article on this essay and is my response to Principal Nugent's reply. It is a pity that such a subject need even be discussed in a country like ours.

"We discovered a new way to make the kids behave — we spank them."

Diet and Health Taste the Medicine You Give Your Child

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

I THINK all you parents should taste the various medicines and tonics which we doctors prescribe for your children. You will be pleasantly surprised at the rather pleasing flavor most of them have.

This will be a big help next time you have to give some to the youngsters.

Reject It

Kids just naturally dislike doing anything which seems distasteful to their parents. And when Mom or Pop makes a wry face when giving them some medicine, they tend to reject it.

A youngster who doesn't want to take his medicine can kick up quite a fuss, as most of you already know.

Childhood Experiences

I realize that you adults are accustomed to taking disagreeable-tasting medicines. You undoubtedly recall some of your own childhood experiences with castor oil, cod liver oil and the like.

But don't pass this distaste on to your children.

There are relatively few unpalatable forms of children's medicine on the market today. We have aspirin of various flavors, cough medicine that tastes like fruit and even vitamins now taste as good as candy.

They Enjoy It

Even those medicines or tonics which we adults find unpleasant to the taste often are taken by small children without any fuss. You may find it difficult to believe, but many babies actually seem to enjoy taking cod liver oil.

Cooperate with your youngster as much as is practical when he must take medicine. If he prefers it in a spoon or a certain type glass, go along with him. Perhaps he will want it mixed with applesauce or some other food. If your doctor approves, it should be okay with you, too.

No Heroics

Whatever you do, don't make taking medicine a heroic deed. Even if he downs it without a fuss, don't praise him for his "bravery." Don't let him think that taking medicine is any different than drinking his milk or eating his prunes.

The most important thing to remember is to stress the fact that while you are willing to give him his medicine in the most pleasing form, he is going to take it one way or another.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A.A.: Is there a difference between seasonal hay fever and allergic rhinitis?

Answer: Seasonal hay fever which occurs in the spring, summer or fall is caused almost entirely by inhalants such as plant pollens and mold spores which are present in the air during these seasons. Allergic rhinitis may occur at all times of the year, since it is caused by non-seasonal allergens such as dust, feathers, animal hairs and foods, or by bacterial infections.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A SECTION FOREMAN on the Erie Railroad was well known for driving his men hard. He stamped over to a veteran member of his squad and roared, "How often must I tell you to lift your pick higher off the ground?"

"It's you I'm trying to protect, sir," was the diplomatic reply. "You hang right over my shoulder so much, I'm afraid of hitting you in the eye!"

The teacher of a sixth-grade class in Brooklyn couldn't understand why all the kids began hoarding pennies at the same time. Then she spotted the new sign in a stamp and coin shop a block away: "We pay $25 for 1900 pennies."

Have you heard about the big-shot business magnate who was on the verge of committing suicide until he discovered that the cleaning woman had hung the graph behind his desk upside down?

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY
Suppose we turn the spotlight on the old DT&I Railroad and one of its main branches, the one known as the "Grasshopper".

The Springfield, Jackson and Pomeroy Railroad was completed as far as Jackson in 1875, but never extended to Pomeroy. It was built down through the hills to Iron-ton instead.

It was soon called the Ohio South-ern, and later the Detroit, Toledo and Iron-ton.

Most of us recall when the last part of the Grasshopper Railroad, from Jeffersonville to Sedalia, was abandoned and torn up in 1941. That was many years after the branch from Jeffersonville to King-man and Port William was aban-doned and the rails removed.

The Kingman-Sedalia line was built by the Ohio Southern and was completed in 1894.

From Jeffersonville to Octa, Bowersville, Port William, Mc-Kays, New Burlington and Clays-ville junction northwest of New Burlington, the road was constructed on the old right-of-way of the Cincinnati, Columbus and Hocking Valley Railroad, which was never built, although part of the grade was established, bridge abutments constructed and great numbers of ties laid along the proposed route—even in northern Fayette County. It was halted by an injunction in Madison County, I understand.

Most people are not aware that the Grasshopper formerly ex-tended from McKays, in northwestern Clinton County to New Burlington and Claysville Junction.

The road was dismantled from Kingman to Port William in 1931 and from Port William to Jeffer-sonville in 1932.

The Waynesville, Port William and Jeffersonville was chartered in 1877, and completed from Allentown (Octa) to Port William in November, 1877.

The Columbus, Washington and Cincinnati Ry. Co., successors to the Waynesville, Port William and Jeffersonville, was completed in December of 1877, and the line to Claysville Junction, in Greene County, was completed in 1878. It was extended to Jeffersonville the same year and later became part of the Grasshopper Division.

The Cincinnati, Columbus and Hocking Valley was chartered in November 1881, succeeding the Co-lumbus, Washington and Cincinnati Railroad Co.

It was operated by the Ohio Southern Railroad from Novem-ber 1883 until May of 1884, and was dismantled from Clays-ville Junction to McKays in 1887.

The Columbus, Washington and Cincinnati Railroad Co. had track-age rights over the Dayton and Southeastern (later the CH&D and now the B&O) from Octa to Wash-ington C. H.

I also have a photostat copy of a letter written Aug. 26, 1908, by Supt. H. E. Warner, of the DT&I, arranging for an excursion from Kingman to Washington C. H. Aug. 27 and 28—presumably during the Fayette County Fair.

I also have a copy of the timetable for the Cincinnati, Co-lumbus and Hocking Valley Rail-road and for the Columbus, Wash-ington and Cincinnati. George F. Robinson, Washington C. H., was superintendent of the latter road.

Much of the foregoing infor-mation comes from E. M. Neff, 1515 Maryland Ave., Springfield, who is not only an authority on the his-toric railroad but has a mass of documents and information gener-ally about the road.

GOOD OLD DAYS!

Many of you remember when, as a youngster, you obtained strips of pie crust left over when mother was baking and prepared the crust in log strips and baked on top of the stove!

They always tasted better when baked that way, and I still re-call how delicious they were, par-ticularly when sprinkled with a little sugar and cinnamon!

I suppose many mothers were much like my mother—who always made an extra amount of pie crust so there would be some available for crackers, either baked on top of the stove, or in a sheet iron pan placed in the oven.

I still recall the aroma of those baking crackers, and how good they were! It was almost impos-sible to get enough of them.

"Store" or "boughten" crack-ers were always out of this world in those days, but the home-made pie-crust crackers, sprink-led with sugar and cinnamon or eaten plain, were always better than any other kind of crackers of that day or the present!

123-YEAR-OLD RECIPE

From a tiny old recipe book, yel-lowed with age and bearing the date 1835 I give you the following recipe for "Indian Cake."

"Two cups of Indian meal, one tablespoonful of molasses, two cups milk, a little salt, a hand-ful of flour, a little saleratus, mixed up thin and pour into a buttered bake-kettle, hung over the fire uncovered until you can bear your finger upon it, and then set down before the fire. Bake half an hour."

Sounds good, doesn't it?

But I'll bet if you try it you will not bake it according to the above directions. If you do, I would like a sample.

O yes! In case you do not know what saleratus is — it is potas-sium bicarbonate, or sodium bicar-bonate or just plain baking soda!

Garden Club Will Present Rose Book

The November meeting of the Fayette Garden Club was held in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Craig with 27 members answering the roll call with the name of the month she likes best.

Preceding the business meeting, a tempting dessert course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Hyer, Mrs. W. R. Hook and Mrs. Herbert Wilson.

The president, Mrs. Wash Lough, welcomed the members and guests and read a poem entitled "Thanksgiving Prayer."

Mrs. P. G. Harlow, chairman of the books for the library, announced a book on "Roses", Rockwell, would be placed in the Carnegie Public Library in memory of Mrs. Henry Engle, a deceased member.

Final plans were made for the floral arrangement for the tea table at the annual "Christmas at Home Party." Miss Arbana Roush heads the committee.

Mrs. Lough, Mrs. Gladys Keller and Mrs. Ansel Kirkpatrick Sr. reported on a Christmas show at Williamsport which they attended.

The club will present a demonstration on making Christmas decorations at the December meeting of Marion School PTO.

A very interesting program on chrysanthemums was given by Mrs. Maryon Mark. She said that "for success with this queen of the autumn flowers it helps to understand a few basic facts."

An arrangement of mums by Mrs. Ansel Kirkpatrick Sr. and a dried arrangement by Miss Roush were admired.

Mrs. Milton Warner was a guest.

Young Adults Plan Oyster Stew Supper

The Young Adult Bible Class of Maple Grove Church held its reorganization meeting for the fall and winter months at the church. Devotions were in charge of Mr. George VanDyke.

During the business session conducted by Mrs. Neil Rowland, president, final plans were made for the oyster stew supper to be held at the school Friday. Serving will start at 5 p. m. and tickets will be available at the door.

On the purchasing committee are Mrs. Ray Warner, Mrs. Neil Rowland, Mr. John Craig and Mr. George VanDyke.

Mrs. Jordan Hostess To Stitch and Chat Club

Mrs. John G. Jordan entertained the members of the Stitch and Chat Kensington Club at her home Monday afternoon for its November meeting.

A portion of the afternoon was spent doing needlework after which the guests were invited to the recreation room to view slides.

Sixth Birthday Honored at Party

Jane Ann Mullen was guest of honor at a birthday party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Mullen, on her sixth birthday.

Kathy Overly, Beverly Connel, Jeanie Bick and Paula Gale Mullen were the winners of the prizes awarded in contests.

As Jane Ann opened her gifts from a table centered with a white milk glass basket filled with pink carnations she thanked everyone graciously.

Refreshments carrying out the pink and white color scheme were served by Mrs. Mullen, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Lower and Mrs. Junior Campbell to Marianna Lower, Douglas Lower, Jeanie Bick, Kathy Overly, Beverly Connel, Judy Campbell, Paula Mullen and Patrick Connel.

Anniversary Honored With Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrill, daughter, Lauran, and son, Dean, entertained with a family dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Perrill's wedding anniversary.

The home was decorated throughout with the hints of Thanksgiving.

For the serving of the tempting dinner the guests were seated at a long table centered with a fall farm field scene.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perrill, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Slagle, Miss Ethel Slagle and Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Simons.

After the meal the guests went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simons to enjoy colored slides of Canada scenes.

MISS BETTY JANE WILSON

Miss Wilson To Wed Mr. Dale Ferguson

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Pearson, 647 McClain Ave., Greenfield, are announcing the engagement of Mrs. Pearson's daughter, Miss Betty Jane Wilson, to Mr. Dale Ferguson, of Route 1, Sabina.

The bride-elect was graduated from McClain High School at Greenfield in 1958.

Mr. Ferguson was graduated from Bowersville High School in 1953 and is employed at the Kroehler Furniture Co. in Xenia.

Their wedding will be an event of Dec. 23.

High Low Canasta Club Holds Regular Session

Mrs. Edward Summers entertained the members of the High-Low Canasta Club for an evening of canasta in her home.

The honors of the evening were awarded to Mrs. James Morris and Mrs. Robert Noel.

Tempting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Robert Williamson was a guest.

Members present were Mrs. Paul Spires, Mrs. Ronald Hurler, Mrs. Joseph Cassell, Mrs. Jack Scabberry, Mrs. Charles Pine, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Noel.

Wholesale Gas Buyers In Ohio Face Rate Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale customers in Ohio and 12 other states would be affected if the Federal Power Commission permits the 7.7 per cent $19,435,000 annual natural gas rate increase asked by Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. of Houston, Tex. It's necessary because of increased costs of purchased gas, the company says.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allen of Toledo were week end guests of Mrs. W. E. Summers, 120 E. Paint St.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, 324 Highland Ave., had as their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hutchinson, of Sheldon, Ill.

Wife Preservers

Miss Brown Weds Mr. Langen in London Church

The St. Patrick's Catholic Church in London was the scene Saturday for the wedding of Miss Margaret Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Brown of London, and Mr. George Alfred Langen, son of Mrs. Alfred Langen and the late Mr. Langen also of London.

The Rev. Father Edward J. Reidy solemnized the marriage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown, designed along princess lines with sequins trimming the round neckline. The skirt, widened at the hem, flowed into a graceful train. A crown of pearls held the fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white orchid and ivy.

Mrs. John Kile was her sister's matron of honor and Mrs. Thomas William Dorsey, Miss Judy Langen, and Mrs. Robert Rowe were the bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of coral velvet designed with oval necklines and the dome shaped skirts were trimmed with wide bands of satin. Pink rosebud nosegays were carried by the attendants.

Mr. Weldon Butcher was best man. The guests were seated by Mr. Robert Brown, Mr. Robert Rowe and Mr. John Park.

A reception followed at the London Country Club.

The bride was graduated from Ohio State University and is employed as a dietitian at the University Hospital. Mr. Langen was graduated from the London High School and is associated with Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Following a southern wedding trip the couple will reside at 1506 King Ave., Columbus.

DCCW Will Hold Christmas Bazaar

The DCCW will sponsor its annual public Christmas bazaar to be held at St. Colman's Hall in December. This was decided at the committee meeting held in the home of Mrs. Ben Wright.

Committees for the bazaar were appointed.

A discussion on what to sell and an exchange of ideas brought the meeting to a close.

Seasonal refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Betty Byron to The Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly, pastor, Mrs. Gordon Davis, Mrs. Gene Carman, Mrs. Charles Griffiths, Mrs. Bart Mahoney, Mrs. Paul Anderson, Mrs. Henry Ford and Mrs. Tran DelPonte.

The next committee will be Nov. 19.

WCC Entertained By Mrs. Grubb

The Women's Christian Circle of the South Side Church of Christ held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Grubb, the president.

Mrs. Paul Smith, secretary, gave her report, and, plans were made to complete all outstanding projects by the next meeting if possible.

Mrs. Elza Woodruff was appointed chairman to send Christmas gifts to all men of the church who are serving in the armed forces.

Gifts from the Circle will be given to shut-ins of the church, and the St. Louis Christian Home in Missouri. Gifts for the home can be any handmade item or any gift which can be used for children or adults. The home is an institution for all ages.

Mrs. Woodruff reported on final plans for the group's visit to Veterans Hospital. Mrs. Russell Haines will assist Mrs. Woodruff in the decorating of cakes for the hospital. Donations of wrapped candies were also requested to be given to the Veterans.

Members making terry cloth bibs are to give them to Mrs. Woodruff or Mrs. Grubb before Tuesday.

Mrs. Haines, devotional leader, chose "Faith," for the topic of her program. She said that "Alone with Jesus, secluded from the things of the world, we can find a strengthening of our faith." The Scripture was read by Mrs. Fred Johnson. Mrs. Woodruff gave a reading "Viewing the Future."

The poems "How Readest Thou," and "What We Are Promised," were read by Mrs. Harry Naylor and Mrs. Thomas Willis. Prayer led by Mrs. Haines, closed this period.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Guy Patton and Mrs. Naylor.

Dr. Richards Speaker At Mother's Club

Dr. John Richards was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Mother's Circle in the home of Mrs. Marvin Roszmann Monday evening.

The brief business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jane Coffman.

Mrs. Kenneth Johnson was welcomed as a new member.

The secretary, Mrs. Robert Lisk, and treasurer, Mrs. C. R. Hayes gave their reports.

Each committee chairman also gave her report.

In developing his subject "Child Dentistry," Dr. Richards explained the major dental illnesses of children.

Rotary Anns Enjoy Fellowship Tea

An afternoon of friendship was enjoyed at the Rotary Ann tea held in the St. Andrew's Parish Hall Saturday.

The tea delicacies were served from a long table covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and blue carnations and lighted tapers in silver holders.

Each of the 50 ladies was presented a corsage of white carnations tied with the Rotary colors of blue and gold.

Mrs. Paul Dougherty, Mrs. Robert Lisk, Mrs. George Finley, Mrs. L. M. Hayes, Mrs. Colin Campbell and Mrs. Robert Haigler presided over the silver service.

Mrs. B. M. Marlin, Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, Mrs. J. H. Persinger, Mrs. Rollo Marchant, Mrs. Walter Morrow, Mrs. Don Wood, Mrs. Robert Haigler and Mrs. close.

AUTUMN 1958 edition of Edward Abbott's beltless dinner dress was designed by Wilson Folmar in all-over gold and silver embroidered parchment crepe. The figure defines the silhouette.

Joe W. Campbell, wives of the Rotary board members, were hostesses. Visiting during the afternoon brought this delightful event to a close.

ANNOUNCING THE FIRST LUXURY CARS WITH A CONSCIENCE: NEW GAS-SAVING MONTEREYS

New economy-powered Mercury Montereys let you "ride free" 10 miles in every 100

It's about time someone made a luxury car with a V-8 engine that delivers top performance on regular (not premium) gasoline. And Mercury's done it with this beautiful Monterey. You save 10% every time you stop for gas. You get more mileage with regular gasoline than many cars with premium.

It's about time someone built a beautifully styled car that is truly comfortable. Mercury's done it.

For easier entrance, this Monterey has wider front doors than the costliest cars. The windshield pillar has been moved out of the way of your knees and elbows.

For extra knee room, the instrument panel has been moved away from your lap. There's 9 inches more stretch-out comfort.

For extra comfort for center-seat passengers, the tunnel-hump in the floor has been cut in half. Passengers in the middle no longer ride with their legs doubled up. And the lower hump makes room for thicker seat cushioning—not just thin padding.

In a dozen ways, the '59 Mercury has made pleasures out of what are still problems in other '59 cars: New windshield wipers have an overlapping pattern, clear even the center. New aluminum mufflers last twice as long. New anti-dive suspension checks "nose dip" on sudden stops. Self-adjusting brakes eliminate periodic adjustment. New Super-Enamel finish keeps its beauty—doesn't need waxing for years.

Best of all, these beautiful Montereys are attractively priced—well within the reach of 2 out of 3 new-car buyers. We invite you to see them at our showroom.

Pamela Martin Guest of Honor At Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Martin entertained with a birthday party in honor of their daughter, Pamela Sue on the later's seventh birthday.

The guests were greeted at the door by the honored guest, who presented them with party hats and horns.

Party games were enjoyed, with the prizes being awarded to Carolyn James, Cheryl Reeves, Ann Kay Fennig and Catherine Jones.

As Pamela opened her many gifts she thanked each one.

The guests were seated at a long table centered with a large birthday cake, for the serving of traditional refreshments.

Miss Brown Weds Mr. Langen in London Church

The St. Patrick's Catholic Church in London was the scene Saturday for the wedding of Miss Margaret Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Brown of London, and Mr. George Alfred Langen, son of Mrs. Alfred Langen and the late Mr. Langen also of London.

The Rev. Father Edward J. Reidy solemnized the marriage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown, designed along princess lines with sequins trimming the round neckline. The skirt, widened at the hem, flowed into a graceful train. A crown of pearls held the fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white orchid and ivy.

Mrs. John Kile was her sister's matron of honor and Mrs. Thomas William Dorsey, Miss Judy Langen, and Mrs. Robert Rowe were the bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of coral velvet designed with oval necklines and the dome shaped skirts were trimmed with wide bands of satin. Pink rosebud nosegays were carried by the attendants.

Mr. Weldon Butcher was best man. The guests were seated by Mr. Robert Brown, Mr. Robert Rowe and Mr. John Park.

A reception followed at the London Country Club.

The bride was graduated from Ohio State University and is em-

DCCW Will Hold Christmas Bazaar

The DCCW will sponsor its annual public Christmas bazaar to be held at St. Colman's Hall in December. This was decided at the committee meeting held in the home of Mrs. Ben Wright.

Committees for the bazaar were appointed.

A discussion on what to sell and an exchange of ideas brought the meeting to a close.

Seasonal refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Betty Byron to the Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly, pastor, Mrs. Gordon Davis, Mrs. Gene Carman, Mrs. Charles Griffiths, Mrs. Bart Mahoney, Mrs. Paul Anderson, Mrs. Henry Ford and Mrs. Tran DelPonte.

The next committee will be Nov. 19.

employed as a dietitian at the University Hospital. Mr. Langen was graduated from the London High School and is associated with Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Following a southern wedding trip the couple will reside at 1506 King Ave., Columbus.

Among the guests were Mrs. Lawrence Grabill, Mrs. E. Marlyn Riley and Mrs. Robert L. Rea of Washington C. H.; Mrs. W. O. Riley of New Holland; Mrs. Harry R. Elliott of Bloomingburg; Mr. and Mrs. Joel D. Smouse of Park Ridge, Ill., and Miss Ann Elizabeth Circle of Gallipolis.

WCC Entertained By Mrs. Grubb

The Women's Christian Circle of the South Side Church of Christ held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Grubb, the president.

Mrs. Paul Smith, secretary, gave her report, and, plans were made to complete all outstanding projects by the next meeting if possible.

Mrs. Elza Woodruff was appointed chairman to send Christmas gifts to all men of the church who are serving in the armed forces.

Gifts from the Circle will be given to shut-ins of the church, and the St. Louis Christian Home in Missouri. Gifts for the home can be any handmade item or any gift which can be used for children or adults. The home is an institution for all ages.

Mrs. Woodruff reported on final plans for the group's visit to Veterans Hospital. Mrs. Russell Haines will assist Mrs. Woodruff in the decorating of cakes for the hospital. Donations of wrapped candies were also requested to be given to the Veterans.

Members making terry cloth bibs are to give them to Mrs. Woodruff or Mrs. Grubb before Tuesday.

Mrs. Haines, devotional leader, chose "Faith," for the topic of her program. She said that "Alone with Jesus, secluded from the things of the world, we can find a strengthening of our faith." The Scripture was read by Mrs. Fred Johnson. Mrs. Woodruff gave a reading "Viewing the Future." The poems "How Readest Thou," and "What We Are Promised," were read by Mrs. Harry Naylor and Mrs. Thomas Willis. Prayed by Mrs. Haines, closed this period.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Guy Patton and Mrs. Naylor.

Dr. Richards Speaker At Mother's Club

Dr. John Richards was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Mother's Circle in the home of Mrs. Marvin Roszmann Monday evening.

The brief business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jane Coffman.

Mrs. Kenneth Johnson was welcomed as a new member.

The secretary, Mrs. Robert Lisk, and treasurer, Mrs. C. R. Hayes gave their reports.

Each committee chairman also gave her report.

In developing his subject "Child Dentistry," Dr. Richards explained the major dental illnesses of children.

Rotary Anns Enjoy Fellowship Tea

An afternoon of friendship was enjoyed at the Rotary Ann tea held in the St. Andrew's Parish Hall Saturday.

The tea delicacies were served from a long table covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and blue carnations and lighted tapers in silver holders.

Each of the 50 ladies was presented a corsage of white carnations tied with the Rotary colors of blue and gold.

Mrs. Paul Dougherty, Mrs. Robert Lisk, Mrs. George Finley, Mrs. L. M. Hayes, Mrs. Colin Campbell and Mrs. Robert Haigler presided over the silver service.

Mrs. B. M. Marlin, Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, Mrs. J. H. Persinger, Mrs. Rollo Marchant, Mrs. Walter Morrow, Mrs. Don Wood, Mrs. Robert Haigler and Mrs.

AUTUMN 1958 edition of Edward Abbott's beltless dinner dress was designed by Wilson Folmar in all-over gold and silver embroidered parchment crepe. The figure defines the silhouette.

Joe W. Campbell, wives of the Rotary board members, were hostesses.

Visiting during the afternoon brought this delightful event to a close.

ANNOUNCING THE FIRST LUXURY CARS WITH A CONSCIENCE: NEW GAS-SAVING MONTEREYS

New economy-powered Mercury Montereys let you "ride free" 10 miles in every 100

It's about time someone made a luxury car with a V-8 engine that delivers top performance on regular (not premium) gasoline. And Mercury's done it with this beautiful Monterey. You save 10% every time you stop for gas. You get more mileage with regular gasoline than many cars with premium.

It's about time someone built a beautifully styled car that is truly comfortable. Mercury's done it.

For easier entrance, this Monterey has wider front doors than the costliest cars. The windshield pillar has been moved out of the way of your knees and elbows.

For extra knee room, the instrument

panel has been moved away from your lap. There's 9 inches more stretch-out comfort.

For extra comfort for center-seat passengers, the tunnel-hump in the floor has been cut in half. Passengers in the middle no longer ride with their legs doubled up. And the lower hump makes room for thicker seat cushioning—not just thin padding.

In a dozen ways, the '59 Mercury has made pleasures out of what are still problems in other '59 cars: New windshield wipers have an overlapping pattern, clear even the center. New aluminized mufflers last twice as long. New anti-dive suspension checks "nose dip" on sudden stops. Self-adjusting brakes eliminate periodic adjustment. New Super-Enamel finish keeps its beauty—doesn't need waxing for years.

Best of all, these beautiful Montereys are attractively priced—well within the reach of 2 out of 3 new-car buyers. We invite you to see them at our showroom.

Wrecking of Old Infirmary To Provide Road Materials

The rubble created by the razing of the only County Infirmary building, on the CCC Highway northeast of the city won't go to waste.

County Engineer Charles Wagner has asked, and been granted permission from the Board of County Commissioners, to use all the material in connection with work on county roads.

It can be utilized in various places where brick, stone and some of the timber will meet requirements for road and bridge improvements.

The commissioners' decision to tear down the old building followed an order from the office of the State Fire Marshal to either repair or remove it.

THE COMMISSIONERS have decided to build a small modern residence on the grounds, approximately where the old infirmary stands. This new building, when completed, will be for use of the tenant who has a contract for operating the county farm land.

Wagner said he could make arrangements to have the old building razed without the expense which the commissioners otherwise would have to meet.

Not only is much of the old timber, stone and brick in good condition, but Wagner says he can use the rubble accumulating from the razing process to aid in improving some of the township roads where some small streams have washed away embankments.

HE MENTIONED that such county highways as the Mark Rd. in Concord Township and the Walnut Creek Rd. in Perry Township can be improved in spots with the material in the old infirmary building.

Several other county roads probably would benefit by similar action.

The date for starting the work on razing the infirmary has not been definitely set but will be undertaken as quickly as possible, Wagner said, in order to comply with the fire marshal's order.

The county engineer also pointed out Monday that the White Rd. between U. S. Route 22 and the Clemens Rd., a distance of about 1 1/2 miles, was closed Monday for approximately 10 days to replace an old steel bridge over a small stream. The bridge had become dangerous.

A new pre-stressed concrete bridge, 24 feet wide with a span of 28 feet, is to replace the old bridge.

Boy's Letter To Santa Brings Loot

CLEVELAND (AP)—Merchants here are just gearing up for Christmas business, but Santa Claus already has arrived for 7-year-old Johnny Johnson Jr.

Santa has delivered to Johnny the following toys: A 19-piece Army convoy, a fire truck with hydrant, a magic show, a pinball machine, an electric football game and a bulldog tank. It adds up to $41.35—and its all on the charge account of Johnny's daddy, Dr. John J. Johnson of Cleveland.

Johnny's mother, a teacher at Dunham School, saw him looking at a Christmas catalogue that came in the mail. She told him he could send his letter to "the North Pole" in any old envelope—even one that already had writing on it.

But Johnny had found a postage-paid envelope in the catalogue, along with an order blank on which he filled out model numbers and prices.

Now Mrs. Johnson is explaining that Santa sometimes gets a little mixed up on his shipments from the North Pole, and that some of the toys should have been gifts for Johnny's four little sisters and will have to be exchanged.

will be held at Wilson School from 2 to 4 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 13.

Committees appointed for that meeting are: Welcoming, Nancy Fryer and Barbara Jinkens; decorating, Donna and Carolyn Dill; Rosemary Caplinger Norma Glass and Ruth McFadden.

Each girl is to bring a dozen cookies.

Ohioan Denies Asking Payoff In TV Case

McConnaughey Heard Under Oath by House Investigating Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — George C. McConnaughey, former Federal Communications Commission chairman, denied under oath here Monday that he ever solicited money for his vote in a Pittsburgh TV case.

McConnaughey, of Columbus, Ohio, gave the testimony before the House Legislative Oversight Committee, which is looking into rumors that the former FCC head offered to sell his vote to split a 3-3 tie in the award of a license to operate Pittsburgh's channel 4.

McConnaughey said he first heard of the bribe solicitation rumor when he was questioned by FBI agents in September, 1957, shortly after he left the FCC post.

Earlier, witnesses have told of what they termed widespread rumors of soliciting on behalf of McConnaughey at the time of his resignation.

One rumor concerned payment of $50,000 in retainer fees to be paid through a law association into which McConnaughey had entered. This allegedly would have come from one of the channel 4 applicants, Television City, Inc.

A reported rumor said the Hearst Corp., operating radio station WCAE in Pittsburgh, was ready to pay McConnaughey $200,000 under a somewhat similar arrangement.

Committee counsel Robert Lishman asked McConnaughey, with reference to the rumored bribe: "You did not do it personally or cause anyone to do it for you?"

"That is correct," said McConnaughey.

Queried on the reported Hearst solicitation, McConnaughey said he could not recall exactly when he first heard of that. But he said he believed it was at the same time the FBI questioned him on the Television City solicitation.

"Hearst was not mentioned as such but it as said that there was a solicitation for $20,000 a year for 10 years," McConnaughey said.

He denied also any negotiation for any arrangement under which his son, also practicing law, would receive a "profitable return."

This testimony did not appear to square completely with what a former law partner of McConnaughey's, Robert D. L'Heureux, told the investigators a short time earlier.

L'Heureux said McConnaughey told him that Earl Reed, one of those interested in the Pittsburgh case, hinted he could throw some business to McConnaughey's son.

McConnaughey testified he did not consider the mention of possible law business for his son as

Ohioan Denies Asking Payoff In TV Case

McConaughy Heard Under Oath by House Investigating Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — George C. McConaughy, former Federal Communications Commission chairman, denied under oath here Monday that he ever solicited money for his vote in a Pittsburgh TV case.

McConaughy, of Columbus, Ohio, gave the testimony before the House Legislative Oversight Committee, which is looking into rumors that the former FCC head offered to sell his vote to split a 3-3 tie in the award of a license to operate Pittsburgh's channel 4.

McConaughy said he first heard of the bribe solicitation rumor when he was questioned by FBI agents in September, 1957, shortly after he left the FCC post.

Earlier, witnesses have told of what they termed widespread rumors of soliciting on behalf of McConaughy at the time of his resignation.

One rumor concerned payment of $50,000 in retainer fees to be paid through a law association into which McConaughy had entered. This allegedly would have come from one of the channel 4 applicants, Television City, Inc.

A reported rumor said the Hearst Corp., operating radio station WCAE in Pittsburgh, was ready to pay McConaughy $200,000 under a somewhat similar arrangement.

Committee counsel Robert Lishman asked McConaughy, with reference to the rumored bribe:

"You did not do it personally or cause anyone to do it for you?"

"That is correct," said McConaughy.

Queried on the reported Hearst solicitation, McConaughy said he could not recall exactly when he first heard of that. But he said he believed it was at the same time the FBI questioned him on the Television City solicitation.

Sophistication Comes to West

'Wild and Woolly' Days Are Gone Now

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The Far West nowadays is neither wild nor woolly.

Cowboys are wearing dinner jackets and their girl friends are turned out in the best gowns. Hattie Carnegie or Irene have to offer.

You even see gray flannel suits instead of sports shirts on Hollywood Boulevard, and the girls who used to do their shopping attired in flowered pajamas and curlers now are smartly turned out in correct little shirt-waist dresses and sometimes even hats.

From San Diego to Portland you see a new sophistication — a new awareness of the rest of the world. Maybe it's due to the new age of international travel. Maybe it's because of the fine fashion designers of the West Coast. Whatever the reason, the old Far West ain't what she used to be.

I can speak with authority, for I have been observing this great West Coast since the age of five, when my mining-engineer father was bitten by the gold bug, and set out to seek his fortune in the Rockies, the Sierra Nevadas, the plateaus of Arizona and the deserts of Nevada.

A hundred years is a mere interlude as European history is measured. Yet in one century the American path to the west has changed from covered wagon trails to luxury air liners.

I'm on my way now, aboard a DC7 from San Diego to Portland, to visit an 80-year-old aunt, who was the best school teacher in Webb City, Mo., until she married a Portland lawyer a half-century ago.

Though she has been a widow for many years, she refuses to leave her Western home for the effete East.

To all family entreaties to come East, she replies:
"I just wouldn't feel right if I couldn't look up and see Mount Hood."

Now that I've had a fresh look at the West, I know what she means. You have to travel across this big land of ours once in a while to get a perspective on the America.

Toledo Aide Cites Cost of Education

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—City Manager Russell W. Rink today blamed most of Toledo's financial troubles on the $1,550,000 it allocates each year to the University of Toledo and the public school system.

Rink made the statement in his annual budget message to City Council. He submitted a preliminary general fund budget of $11,395,473 for 1959. The budget proposal is $20,555 in the red at the onset and $349,641 under the income needed if the 1958 deficit is to be wiped out.

The city manager said the best way to get in the black and increase general fund revenues would be to cut off the municipally owned university and the schools from contributions they now get from the one per cent city income tax.

The real problem, he said, "stems from the fact that Toledo attempts to do too much with too little."

Rink said the university should either exist on levies voted by the people or be included in the state university system. The university gets $950,000 a year.

That money, together with $600,000 a year for public schools, Rink said, means that "Toledo is carrying on its financial back two burdens that few cities are expected to, or attempt, to carry."

Hamilton City Manager Sees Revenue Shortage

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — City Manager Howard Wilson says a rise in city operating costs means city council must probably either up its present utilities tax, or eliminate it and substitute an income tax. Wilson explained the problem to council Monday night after a budget report indicated the city will need $2,325,542 in operations in 1959, and this is $302,768 more than expected revenues.

Crankshaft Employees Agree To End Strike

CLEVELAND (AP)—Return to work today to 500 Ohio Crankshaft Co. employees has been agreed upon by United Automobile Workers Local 91. Employees at the plant walked out Friday in protest of working conditions, but voted Monday to go back while union and company representatives negotiate the issues involved.

KEY TO A FUTURE EVENING OUT—The civic center of 1970 demonstrates convenience of the future in this drawing of a huge amphitheater, served by rail, bus and car facilities. The vast sliding dome would be closed during inclement weather with indoor passageways leading to transportation. Plans for the center, including museums, were drawn by General Electric engineers.

Milledgeville 'Oil Strike' Report Denied

MILLEDGEVILLE — A report, widely circulated Monday, that oil had been struck in the well which Kewanee is drilling on the Barnes land southeast of Milledgeville, proved erroneous. There have been other similar reports since the company began sinking test holes in this area.

The Milledgeville well had been drilled to a depth of 1,650 feet (or about the depth where the Trenton oil-bearing sand was struck in a well drilled 54 years ago near the L. plant here), and it was decided to run a test.

The drilling shaft was pulled and the hole cleared of drillers' mud, but no oil was found, according to authentic information late Monday.

The work of lowering the 1,650 feet of shaft into the well was started late Monday afternoon and drilling was resumed.

Rapid headway had been made on the well until mechanical difficulties retarded the work somewhat. The well was started a week ago.

To Catch Elephant Just Grab Tail

PARIS (AP) — To capture a young wild elephant, just sneak up in the dark and grab him by the tail. He'll wear himself out going 'round in circles.

A cobra is handily caught by playing matador with your jacket. The cobra strikes, his fangs catch in the cloth and he's helpless.

All this is according to G. Wyman Carroll III, America's ambitious bring-'em-back-alive animal hunter.

Carroll has criss-crossed the globe to supply zoos from San Diego to Moscow with everything from the Cyranosnouted proboscis monkey to the Komodo dragon.

The 29-year-old former New Haven insurance salesman is pausing long enough in Europe to hunt out support for his international wild animal protection organization. The matter, he says, is urgent.

Talking to a reporter, Carroll put the problem this way:
The Java rhinoceros is down to

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON — Off year elections were two weeks ago. Now — 14 days and many thousands of words later — what is the picture on why the Republicans lost and what the new Congress will do?

Two things are certain: (1) the Republicans took a terrible drubbing, and (2) this happened because the voters had more confidence in the Democrats.

But the arguments on why this was so are still going on.

Apologists for the Republicans are still straining to minimize the significance of their defeat. Critics blame their loss on everything from poor leadership by President Eisenhower to reactionary Republican policy.

One conclusion seems reasonable: that the Republicans had better get wise to themselves and get more in step with whatever it is the voters want, if they hope to do any better in 1960.

But the real post-election discussion covers speculation on what the new Congress will do. This much seems certain when Congress comes back in January: A group of liberal senators, both Democrats and Republicans from the North and West, will try to curb the filibustering power of Southern Democrats who have used unlimited debate to block most civil rights legislation.

The rule on filibusters may possibly be changed to make it easier to smash them. But that by no means is a guarantee that any major civil rights bill would get through Congress in 1959.

Both parties may think it politically smarter to push civil rights harder in 1960, since that's an election year and minority groups would have a more recent and vivid memory of any progress made.

Such a deliberate delay could turn out to be poor strategy for the Democratic leadership at least and for this reason:

A blazing quarrel between Northern and Southern Democrats in 1960 over civil rights might damage party unity when they get to that year's nominating convention. Without party unity in the campaign, the door would be open to a Republican victory.

But the biggest guessing of all — and it probably will continue until well after the January opening of the new Congress — covers questions like these:

1. Since a number of the most conservative Republicans in the Senate lost out in the election, will the more liberal wing of the party be able to assert itself and give Republicanism a meaning more to the voters' liking?

2. Will the newly elected Democratic senators — most of them classified as liberals — be able to join forces with the present group classified as liberals in such a way as to shape the kind of Democratic program they want?

3. Will Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats, have as much control over the at least 62 Democrats in the next Senate as he did over the old one where the Democrats numbered only 49?

The best and most honest answer anyone can give to all three questions is simply: wait and see.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD.

The Milledgeville well had been drilled to a depth of 1,650 feet (or about the depth where the Trenton oil-bearing sand was struck in a well drilled 54 years ago near the K.C. plant here), and it was decided to run a test.

The drilling shaft was pulled and the hole cleared of drillers' mud, but no oil was found, according to authentic information late Monday.

The work of lowering the 1,650 feet of shaft into the well was started late Monday afternoon and drilling was resumed. Rapid headway had been made on the well until mechanical difficulties retarded the work somewhat. The well was started a week ago.

To Catch Elephant Just Grab Tail

PARIS (AP) — To capture a young wild elephant, just sneak up in the dark and grab him by the tail. He'll wear himself out going 'round in circles.

A cobra is handily caught by playing matador with your jacket. The cobra strikes, his fangs catch in the cloth and he's helpless.

All this is according to G. Wyman Carroll III, America's ambitious bring-'em-back-alive animal hunter.

Carroll has criss-crossed the globe to supply zoos from San Diego to Moscow with everything from the Cyano-snouted proboscis monkey to the Komodo dragon.

The 29-year-old former New Haven insurance salesman is pausing long enough in Europe to hunt out support for his international wild animal protection organization. The matter, he says, is urgent.

Talking to a reporter, Carroll put the problem this way:

The Java rhinoceros is down to

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON — Off year elections were two weeks ago. Now — 14 days and many thousands of words later — what is the picture on why the Republicans lost and what the new Congress will do?

Two things are certain: (1) the Republicans took a terrible drubbing, and (2) this happened because the voters had more confidence in the Democrats.

But the arguments on why this was so are still going on.

Apologists for the Republicans are still straining to minimize the significance of their defeat. Critics blame their loss on everything from poor leadership by President Eisenhower to reactionary Republican policy.

One conclusion seems reasonable: that the Republicans had better get wise to themselves and get more in step with whatever it is the voters want, if they hope to do any better in 1960.

But the real post-election discussion covers speculation on what the new Congress will do. This much seems certain when Congress comes back in January: A group of liberal senators, both Democrats and Republicans from the North and West, will try to curb the filibustering power of Southern Democrats who have used unlimited debate to block most civil rights legislation.

The rule on filibusters may possibly be changed to make it easier to smash them. But that by no means is a guarantee that any major civil rights bill would get through Congress in 1959.

Both parties may think it politically smarter to push civil rights harder in 1960, since that's an election year and minority groups would have a more recent and vivid memory of any progress made.

Such a deliberate delay could turn out to be poor strategy for the Democratic leadership at least and for this reason:

A blazing quarrel between Northern and Southern Democrats in 1960 over civil rights might damage party unity when they get to that year's nominating convention. Without party unity in the campaign, the door would be open to a Republican victory.

But the biggest guessing of all — and it probably will continue until well after the January opening of the new Congress — covers questions like these:

1. Since a number of the most conservative Republicans in the Senate lost out in the election, will

the more liberal wing of the party be able to assert itself and give Republicanism a meaning more to the voters' liking?

2. Will the newly elected Democratic senators — most of them classified as liberals — be able to join forces with the present group classified as liberals in such a way as to shape the kind of Democratic program they want?

3. Will Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats, have as much control over the at least 62 Democrats in the next Senate as he did over the old one where the Democrats numbered only 49?

The best and most honest answer anyone can give to all three questions is simply: wait and see.

Alliance Aviators Wear Crown of Ohio Grid Kings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Alliance Aviators wore the crown today as king of Ohio's high school football teams for 1958.

Coach Mel Knowlton's stalwarts, who blanked seven of 10 opponents in defeating nine and tying Massillon, were awarded the championship by 51 sports editors in the final Associated Press poll.

Winner of the poll takes the Rutgers Hall of Fame Trophy for one year. It must be won three times for permanent possession. Massillon has one tucked away in its trophy case to keep forever.

The 34 newspaper and 17 radio-television scribes, voting for 10 teams on a 10-9-8-etc basis, gave the Aviators a 70-point margin over Gordon Larson's unbeaten-united Marion Harding Presidents. Alliance picked up 15 first place votes, more than twice the number garnered by anyone else.

Haney Says Third Pennant Is Cinch

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Fred Haney declared Monday night his Milwaukee Braves can win their third straight National League pennant next summer without second baseman Red Schoendienst.

He hastened to add, however, that he wasn't counting the red-head out. Schoendienst is in a St. Louis hospital awaiting results of tests to determine whether he has tuberculosis.

"We can win without Schoendienst," Haney said. "We'll come up with somebody who can handle second."

LSU Widens Gap in Lead In Grid Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Louisiana State, the nation's only major college football team still unbeaten and untied, has opened up a wide lead in the race for the national championship in The Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

With the season drawing to a close, a big vote of 183 writers and TV-radio men left LSU the unquestioned leader. Despite its close call against Mississippi State, which LSU barely topped 7-6, the No. 1 team polled 114 first place ballots.

Unless Tulane is able to upset Louisiana State in Saturday's finale, the Tigers will wind up with a perfect 10-0 record.

Auburn moved up to second place with strong support after its 21-6 victory over Georgia Iowa, last week's runner-up, dropped to sixth after losing to Ohio State 38-28.

Army remained in third position after its 26-0 decision over Villanova. The Cadets, tied only by Pitt, still must beat Navy to finish unbeaten.

Oklahoma's decisive 39-0 thumping of Missouri moved the Sooners up to fourth place with 22 first place ballots.

Wisconsin held tight to fifth after beating Illinois, 31-12, and Texas Christian advanced to seventh, a step behind Iowa, by knocking off Texas 22-8.

Purdue clung to eighth off its 23-6 triumph over Northwestern and the Air Force Academy advanced a peg to ninth. Syracuse made 10th place by bombing Colgate 47-0. Mississippi, upset by Tennessee, skidded from seventh to 13th.

Hamilton, which used the extra points to whip Springfield 8-6, lost the last two by the same method to Lima and Middletown for a 5-3 record.

Ken Johnson of New Concord captured the state scoring laurels with 204 points, getting 10 in the 42-0 finale against Philo. Pomeroy halfback Vern Harrison scored 12 in a 26-22 win over Belpre, boasting him to 158 for nine games, and he has a Thanksgiving Day date against Middleport. Notre Dame of Portsmouth dropped Portsmouth East 24-6, with Tailback Nick Weber getting all 24 for the season total of 148. It was Notre Dame's first winning campaign in eight years, and Coach Bill Apple's boys snagged the Southern Ohio Conference crown with 7-1-1.

Fremont Ross, after three straight undefeated seasons, compiled a 4-7-2 record this year. The entire starting backfield from last year graduated, and injuries plagued the replacements.

Warren Harding, which led the poll several weeks in mid-season, finished with a 62-16 triumph over Youngstown South with Paul Warfield getting three touchdowns for a 92-point total.

Alliance loses three starting backs and four starting linemen from its championship team, but has some fine reserves coming up. Halfback Bob Brown of the Aviators led Stark County in scoring with 120 points. The Alliance team took no chances on being nosed out in the poll, piling up 32 points in the third period to show its muscle against East Liverpool.

Despite the loss, East Liverpool's 160-pound guard, Nick Mursura, was rated a standout on defense against the Aviators who gained little over his spot.

Marietta's Dick Wendelken, a junior halfback, scored four touchdowns and gained 227 yards as the Tigers routed Cambridge 46-22. The youngster amassed 17 touchdowns, and gained 1,032 yards in 122 carries for the season, a nifty 8.5 average.

Browns' Pass Defense Due For Workout

CLEVELAND (AP) — The rejuvenated pass defense of the Cleveland Browns can expect plenty of work here Sunday against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Veteran Norm Van Brocklin passes for the Eagles. And he has thrown and completed more aeri-als this season than any quarter-back in the National Football League.

The Cleveland pass defense was rearranged by Coach Paul E. Brown before last Sunday's game with the Washington Redskins. Warren Lahr and Lowe (Junior) Wren were the deep backs. Don Paul and Bobby Freeman were the corner backs.

"A wet, slippery field," Brown observed, "makes it tougher on the pass defense usually."

"We've had some of our better days throwing the ball on that type of fields," he added.

The Redskins threw 21 passes against the Browns. They completed only nine for 150 yards.

Turning his attention to the Eagles, Brown commented:

"When a passer like Van Brocklin is hooked up with runners like Clarence Peaks, Bill Barnes and Walt Kowalczyk it's a real problem for any defense."

Peaks scored four touchdowns for the Eagles last Sunday in their 49-21 defeat of the Chicago Cardinals.

The 32-year-old Van Brocklin, traded to Philadelphia by the Los Angeles Rams, has thrown 279 passes and completed 146 this season. He has gained 1,800 yards through the air and pitched for 12 touchdowns.

Mort Cooper Dies In Arkansas at 45

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Mort Cooper, firebranding Cardinals' right-hander who with his brother Walker formed one of a baseball's top batteries in the 1940s, died here Monday at the age of 45.

Death was due to cirrhosis of the liver and staphylococcal infection. He had been a patient at St. Vincent's Infirmary for about three weeks.

Two County Cage Teams Play Tonight--All Five In Action Friday Night

Two of the five Fayette County high school basketball teams are scheduled for action Tuesday (tonight) and all five of them will hit the hardwood Friday night.

Both of tonight's games are away from home, with Good Hope's Mad Antonys playing at Salt Creek and the Warriors of Madison Mills at Atlanta.

One of Friday night's games will be a league encounter. It will bring together Jeffersonville's Tigers and the Bulldogs at New Holland. The Tigers have won one of their three games this season, but the Bulldogs have lost three in a row. The high scoring offense with which the Tigers tallied 85 points to beat Simon Kenton Saturday night gives them the edge.

Two of the other three games Friday night will be played on foreign fields.

The Warriors, who have won three of their four games to date, will go to Bowersville to take on a team that already has defeated two Fayette County teams—the Tigers and Bloomington's Bulldogs. Incidentally, the Bowersville boys barely pulled their game with the Bulldogs out of the fire in the last few minutes to win by 3 points.

THE MAD ANTHONYS who edged Jackson Township, 49-47, for their season's first win last Friday, will go to South Salem for their Friday night game with the Bucksin outfit.

In the only non-league game to be played in the county Friday night, the boys from Paint Valley High School at Bainbridge will invade the kennel of Bloomington's Bulldogs, who have lost both of the games they have played this season.

The Tiger-Bulldog game at New Holland Friday night will be the second league game of the season. In the other one, the Warriors trounced the Bulldogs, 58 to 47, at New Holland.

Although four of the Fayette County teams, all loaded with experienced boys, got off to a slow start, scores of succeeding games indicate they all have been improving, just as their coaches predicted they would.

Although the Mad Antonys and Warriors have not met yet this season, the 66 to 31 trouncing the Warriors gave Bucksin Friday night puts the Good Hope boys in the favorite role for Friday night's game at South Salem.

What the Bulldogs will be up against when the Paint Valley cagers come to Bloomington Friday night is anybody's guess, because the Bainbridge outfit has not yet played a Fayette County team for comparison.

Here's the week's schedule:

TUESDAY NIGHT

Good Hope at Salt Creek

Madison Mills at Atlanta

FRIDAY NIGHT

Jeffersonville at New Holland

Madison Mills at Bowersville

Paint Valley at Bloomington

Good Hope at Bucksin

Pettit Averaging 30 Points per Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Pettit of St. Louis surpassing the record set by the incomparable George Mikan, is the first player in National Basketball Assn. History to average 30 points a game at any stage of the season.

Pettit currently ranks third in the league scoring race with 270 points in 9 games, right on the 30-point a game button. Mikan had a 9-game pace of 29.3 in 1950.

The Hawk star trails in the battle for scoring honors only because he has played in fewer games than the leaders.

Detroit's George Yardley, who has seen action in 12 games, tops the point-getters with 290 for a 24.2 average. Minneapolis rookie Elgin Baylor is second with 285 points for a 23.8 average.

It's Time To Be Guessing About Bowl Game Invites

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The annual—and rarely successful—guessing game on what teams will play in the big bowl games New Year's Day began in earnest today.

Iowa and Oklahoma already have clinched their berths, so that narrows the field some.

Iowa, which clinched the Big 10 title more than a week ago, goes to the Rose Bowl. Oklahoma will make another trip to the Orange Bowl although it still must take care of the formalities of wrapping up its 11th straight Big 8 crown.

But even in the unlikely event that Nebraska beats the Sooners—Oklahoma hasn't lost a league game in its last 70 tries—it still head for the Orange Bowl. This is because they have beaten Missouri, the only team that can possibly tie them for the championship.

Here is how the major bowl set-up looks now with two weeks left of the season.

Rose—Iowa vs. California.

Orange—Oklahoma vs. Air Force Academy.

Sugar—Louisiana State vs. North Carolina.

Cotton—Texas Christian vs. Mississippi or Syracuse.

Right behind is the Gator bowl, waiting in the wings for any top teams that don't get in the others. Gator possibilities include Vanderbilt and Florida.

California has won 7 of its 9 games so far and has only to get past much-beaten Stanford to wrap up the Pacific Coast Conference title and the automatic Rose Bowl bid that goes with it.

The Big 8 sends a team yearly to play in the Orange Bowl. The opposition could be the Air Force Academy, which hasn't even graduated its first class yet. The AFA has been tied by Iowa once in 8 games.

Louisiana State, which had a 7-6 squeaker over Mississippi State Saturday night, need only defeat Tulane this week to win the Southwestern Conference championship.

North Carolina still is the top choice as the second Sugar Bowl team despite its 34-24 loss to Notre Dame Saturday. The defeat snapped a 6-game Tar Heel win streak.

With Pitt's 14-0 loss to Nebraska, Syracuse appears to be about the top eligible in the East and that could earn the Orange the Sugar Bowl bid.

Texas Christian is the Cotton Bowl choice as the host team at the moment because it is leading the Southwest Conference, a precarious spot for any team in this topsy-turvy loop. A victory over Rice, which has had its ups and downs, Saturday and TCU should be in.

Three conference champions were crowned Saturday. West Virginia became the Southern Conference kingpin by crushing William and Mary, 56-6; Clemson sewed up the Atlantic Coast Conference by whipping North Carolina, 13-6, and Connecticut won the Yankee Conference by thrashing Rhode Island, 36-8.

Rutgers, with ace Billy Austin on the sidelines with an injury, lost to the Quantico Marines, 13-12, and that left Louisiana State the only undefeated-untied major team in the country.

Iowa and Virginia Military institute also both lost their first games of the season. Both had been tied. Ohio State clubbed Iowa, 38-28, and The Citadel, beaten four times, embarrassed VMI, 14-6.

Three major teams remain in the unbeaten-but-tied club. They are Army, Auburn and the Air Force Academy. The Cadets licked Villanova, 26-0; Auburn turned back Georgia, 21-6, and AFA licked Wyoming, also by 21-6.

Alliance Aviators Wear Crown of Ohio Grid Kings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Alliance's Aviators wore the crown today as king of Ohio's high school football teams for 1958.

Coach Mel Knowlton's stalwarts, who blanked seven of 10 opponents in defeating nine and tying Massillon, were awarded the championship by 51 sports editors in the final Associated Press poll.

Winner of the poll takes the Rutgers Hall of Fame Trophy for one year. It must be won three times for permanent possession—Massillon has one tucked away in its trophy case to keep forever.

The 34 newspaper and 17 radio-television scribes, voting for 10 teams on a 10-9-8-etc basis, gave the Aviators a 70-point margin over Gordon Larson's unbeaten Marion Harding Presidents. Alliance picked up 15 first place votes, more than twice the number garnered by anyone else.

Cleveland Benedictine, the defending champion, and Canton McKinley, winner in 1955 and 1956,

LSU Widens Gap in Lead In Grid Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Louisiana State, the nation's only major college football team still unbeaten and untied, has opened up a wide lead in the race for the national championship in The Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

With the season drawing to a close, a big vote of 183 writers and TV-radio men left LSU the unquestioned leader. Despite its close call against Mississippi State, which LSU barely topped 7-6, the No. 1 team polled 114 first place ballots.

Unless Tulane is able to upset Louisiana State in Saturday's finale, the Tigers will wind up with a perfect 10-0 record.

Auburn moved up to second place with strong support after its 21-6 victory over Georgia. Iowa, last week's runner-up, dropped to sixth after losing to Ohio State 38-28.

Army remained in third position after its 26-0 decision over Villanova. The Cadets, tied only by Pitt, still must beat Navy to finish unbeaten.

Oklahoma's decisive 39-0 thumping of Missouri moved the Sooners up to fourth place with 22 first place ballots.

Wisconsin held tight to fifth after beating Illinois, 31-12, and Texas Christian advanced to seventh, a step behind Iowa, by knocking off Texas 22-8.

Purdue clung to eighth off its 23-6 triumph over Northwestern and the Air Force Academy advanced a peg to ninth. Syracuse made 10th place by bombing College 47-0. Mississippi, upset by Tennessee, skidded from seventh to 13th.

Browns' Pass Defense Due For Workout

CLEVELAND (AP) — The rejuvenated pass defense of the Cleveland Browns can expect plenty of work here Sunday against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Veteran Norm Van Brocklin passes for the Eagles. And he has thrown and completed more aerials this season than any quarterback in the National Football League.

The Cleveland pass defense was rearranged by Coach Paul E. Brown before last Sunday's game with the Washington Redskins. Warren Lahr and Lowe (Junior) Wren were the deep backs. Don Paul and Bobby Freeman were the corner backs.

Washington was defeated 20-10 on a muddy field. "A wet, slippery field," Brown observed, "makes it tougher on the pass defense usually."

"We've had some of our better days throwing the ball on that type of field," he added.

The Redskins threw 21 passes against the Browns. They completed only nine for 150 yards.

"When a passer like Van Brocklin is hooked up with runners like Clarence Peaks, Bill Barnes and Walt Kowalczyk it's a real problem for any defense."

Peaks scored four touchdowns for the Eagles last Sunday in their 49-21 defeat of the Chicago Cardinals.

The 32-year-old Van Brocklin, traded to Philadelphia by the Los Angeles Rams, has thrown 279 passes and completed 146 this season. He has gained 1,800 yards through the air and pitched for 12 touchdowns.

Mort Cooper Dies In Arkansas at 45

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Mort Cooper, fireballing Cardinals' right-hander who with his brother Walker formed one of a baseball's top batteries in the 1940s, died here Monday at the age of 45.

Death was due to cirrhosis of the liver and staphylococcal infection. He had been a patient at St. Vincent's Infirmary for about three weeks.

Two County Cage Teams Play Tonight--All Five In Action Friday Night

Two of the five Fayette County high school basketball teams are scheduled for action Tuesday (tonight) and all five of them will hit the hardwood Friday night.

Both of tonight's games are away from home, with Good Hope's Mad Anthonys playing at Salt Creek and the Warriors of Madison Mills at Atlanta.

One of Friday night's games will be a league encounter. It will bring together Jeffersonville's Tigers and the Bulldogs at New Holland.

The Tigers have won one of their three games this season, but the Bulldogs have lost three in a row. The high scoring offense with which the Tigers tallied 85 points to beat Simon Kenton Saturday night gives them the edge.

Two of the other three games Friday night will be played on foreign fields.

The Warriors, who have won three of their four games to date, will go to Bowersville to take on a

Pettit Averaging 30 Points per Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Pettit of St. Louis surpassing the record set by the incomparable George Mikan, is the first player in National Basketball Assn. history to average 30 points a game at any stage of the season.

Pettit currently ranks third in the league scoring rate with 27.0 points in 9 games, right on the 30-point a game button. Mikan had a 9-game pace of 29.3 in 1950.

The Hawk star trails in the battle for scoring honors only because he has played in fewer games than the leaders.

It's Time To Be Guessing About Bowl Game Invites

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The annual—and rarely successful—guessing game on what teams will play in the big bowl games New Year's Day began in earnest today.

Iowa and Oklahoma already have clinched their berths, so that narrows the field some.

Iowa, which clinched the Big 10 title more than a week ago, goes to the Rose Bowl. Oklahoma will make another trip to the Orange Bowl although it still must take care of the formalities of wrapping up its 11th straight Big 8 crown.

But even in the unlikely event that Nebraska beats the Sooners—Oklahoma hasn't lost a league game in its last 70 tries—they still head for the Orange Bowl. This is because they have beaten Missouri, the only team that can possibly tie them for the championship.

Here is how the major bowl set looks now with two weeks left of the season.

Rose—Iowa vs. California.
Orange — Oklahoma vs. Air Force Academy.

Cotton—Texas Christian vs. Mississippi or Syracuse.

Right behind is the Gator bowl, waiting in the wings for any team that don't get in the others. Gator possibilities include Vanderbilt and Florida.

California has won 7 of its 9 games so far and has only to get past much-beaten Stanford to wrap up the Pacific Coast Conference.

Bucks Prepare For Annual Michigan Tilt

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's Bucks, back on the victory trail after a three-game lapse, aren't taking Michigan too lightly in Saturday's season-ending contest.

Although the ancient and honored rivals from the north have won only two of eight games—each by a single point—and given up 191 points while scoring 118, Coach Woody Hayes warns the Wolverines could be rugged.

Bennie Oosterbaan, Michigan mentor, retires after the tilt before some 8,000 fans. The poor season, and the "let's win one for Bennie" attitude, could boost the Michiganians to a gaudy performance.

Hayes told his press conference Monday that:

"Sentimentally, Michigan will try everything to win this last one for Bennie. And if they weren't playing us, I'd be rooting for him, too. He's a fine coach, a fine gentleman."

National League Chieftain

Unworried about 3rd Loop

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Warren Giles let New York's ambitious planners in on his version of the facts of baseball life Monday night.

Forming a third major league, said the National League president, "is easier to accomplish through a press release than actually getting the cities, parks and players."

At the same time, Giles apparently is in opposition to Commissioner Ford Frick's hopes for an expansion of major league baseball.

Baseball, said Giles, must "keep a small structure, rather than enlarging it and diluting it." Speaking before more than 500 persons at a testimonial dinner for General Manager John Quinn of the Braves, Giles added:

"If enlargement means dilution of our product, we are not keeping faith with the people."

Giles said he favored cooperation within baseball on all levels

— in player recruiting, and if necessary, in the subsidization of the minor leagues to guarantee a supply of talent for the majors.

His views on a third major league were a follow up to an announcement by the New York Mayor's Baseball Committee last week that it planned to form a third league — either within the present baseball structure or outside it, raiding the majors for players — in an effort to regain two-team status for the city.

Giles originally answered that announcement by saying he did not believe New York could regain a National League franchise by threats.

Frick is on record as being in favor of keeping New York open territory for a franchise in some subsequent expansion program.

On recruiting players, Giles said that meant cooperating with the baseball training grounds, the high schools, colleges and little leagues.

Quinn heard himself described as "a great guy and a real champion" by a host of National and American League club officials.

Fred Hancy, Milwaukee manager, said he hoped that when his turn came to leave baseball "I can step out of this game with the same respect and feeling baseball men have for Quinn."

Charlie Grimm, former Milwaukee manager, said that as long as Quinn guides the Braves "Milwaukee will never have to worry about a first division ball club."

Bloomingburg Freshman Is 'Cover Girl'

By ALICE CRAIG

Many of you folks may not have known it, but we have a cover girl at BHS. Her picture is on the front page of a statewide magazine.

However, Joyce Cannon's picture is not of the usual variety, as she would be the first to admit. This photograph was taken at the Ohio Pork Producers' Picnic held at the Greene County Fairground in September.

Joyce, a freshman who has been in 4-H club work for five years, decided to enter the greased pig contest at the picnic. One part of the contest was for girls only, with the prize being a purebred gilt.

Joyce's 4-H project the last few years has been market hogs, so she was very enthusiastic about the competition.

A twist of fate prevented Joyce from capturing the greased pig, which was actually in her hands for a short time. In fact, the only thing she got out of the contest, except for a very gre

National League Chieftain Unworried about 3rd Loop

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Warren Giles let New York's ambitious planners in on his version of the facts of baseball life Monday night.

Forming a third major league, said the National League president, "is easier to accomplish through a press release than actually getting the cities, parks and players."

At the same time, Giles apparently is in opposition to Commissioner Ford Frick's hopes for an expansion of major league baseball.

Baseball, said Giles, must "keep a small structure, rather than enlarging it and diluting it."

Speaking before more than 500 persons at a testimonial dinner for General Manager John Quinn of the Braves, Giles added:

"If enlargement means dilution of our product, we are not keeping faith with the people."

Giles said he favored cooperation within baseball on all levels.

— in player recruiting, and if necessary, in the subsidization of the minor leagues to guarantee a supply of talent for the majors.

His views on a third major league were a follow up to an announcement by the New York Mayor's Baseball Committee last week that it planned to form a present baseball structure or outside it, raiding the majors for players — in an effort to regain two-team status for the city.

Giles originally answered that announcement by saying he did not believe New York could regain a National League franchise by threats.

Frick is on record as being in favor of keeping New York open territory for a franchise in some subsequent expansion program.

On recruiting players, Giles said that meant cooperating with the baseball training grounds, the high schools, colleges and little leagues.

Quinn heard himself described as "a great guy and a real champion" by a host of National and American League club officials.

Fred Hanev, Milwaukee manager, said he hoped that when his turn came to leave baseball "I can step out of this game with the same respect and feeling baseball men have for Quinn."

Charlie Grimm, former Milwaukee manager, said that as long as Quinn guides the Braves "Milwaukee will never have to worry about a first division ball club."

Bloomington Freshman Is 'Cover Girl'

By ALICE CRAIG

Many of you folks may not have known it, but we have a cover girl at BHS. Her picture is on the front page of a statewide magazine.

However, Joyce Cannon's picture is not of the usual variety, as she would be the first to admit. This photograph was taken at the Ohio Pork Producers' Picnic held at the Greene County Fairground in September.

Joyce, a freshman who has been in 4-H club work for five years, decided to enter the greased pig contest at the picnic. One part of the contest was for girls only, with the prize being a purebred gilt.

Joyce's 4-H project the last few years has been market hogs, so she was very enthusiastic about the competition.

A twist of fate prevented Joyce from capturing the greased pig, which was actually in her hands for a short time. In fact, the only thing she got out of the contest, except for a very greasy blouse and bermudas, was the picture on the cover of the "Extension Service News," a magazine for agricultural extension agents, which showed her about ready to grab the pig.

It must have been quite an experience!

SCIENCE POSTERS
The results from a recent project of the eighth grade science class are now being displayed in two of the classrooms. This enterprise, sponsored by Mrs. Gilbert Biddle, was the construction of posters of the universe.

Two 17-foot rolls of white paper were used. On the paper colorful reproductions of the planets and the sun were drawn. The posters illustrate the distances from the sun and the relative proportion in size of the planets.

It took several of the biggest boys in the class to tape the paper onto the wall above the blackboards.

Penny Noble and Beverly Owens made the poster in the eight grade room. The freshmen are admiring an additional one in the home room, which was constructed by Patty Cannon and Janet McCoy.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL
The junior high basketball team has been working industriously the past weeks. A short period of rigorous calisthenics precedes each practice session.

The boys are now in training guided by that mystical phrase which holds sway even when a strawberry sundae does begin to look tempting.

Two of the squad members were seen one afternoon completely encircling the village of Bloomington, jogging along to build up their wind. It's lucky our town isn't the size of New York City.

Seventh and eighth grade boys who are preparing for an exciting season are Wayne Cowdery, Pirley Harris, Terry Kneisley, Kenny Reed, Scott Carran, Dave Craig, Carl Draise, Dick Evans, Harry O'Call, Richard Redd, Darrell Roberts and Cook Weaver.

Elected captain by the squad is Cook Weaver, and co-captain is Dave Craig. Manager is Chuck McCoy.

Ohio Hunters Doing OK
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Rabbit and pheasant hunters had their best opening day since 1951 Saturday, the Ohio Division of Wildlife says. No figures on the amount of game bagged or number of hunters in the field are available.

Wanted, Dead!

By FRANK KUCHIRCHUK
Central Press Writer

THE sports fisherman casts his line, gets a strike, and hauls in his fish, little realizing the job being done by fish management agencies to keep him happy in his sport. Many things enter into the picture. Fish have to be planted in the water, food has to be abundant, there must be cover for protection. The biggest problem in the Great Lakes region is the sea lamprey, the worst enemy of the fish. It's so bad that fishing, by sport or commercial men, in Lakes Huron, Michigan and Superior is just about extinct.

The lamprey's family tree predates the dinosaur. It is a marine species which hatches in a fresh-water stream, migrates to a large body of water in its adult or predatory stage, and returns to spawn in fresh water. As an adult it clings to a fish with its suction-like mouth and destroys it, then moves on to another fish.

Until recently there has been no known method of destroying this predator. Years of experimentation by Drs. James W. Moffett and Vernon C. Applegate of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife service laid the ground work for ways of destroying the lamprey. The Dow Biochemical Research laboratory came up with a chemical that destroyed the vicious killer. It kills the lamprey without harming other fish or human swimmers.

Since cost of the chemical is reasonable, state and federal fish management agencies are formulating plans to rid the Great Lakes of this killer and restore edible fish.

Quinn heard himself described as "a great guy and a real champion" by a host of National and American League club officials.

Fred Hanev, Milwaukee manager, said he hoped that when his turn came to leave baseball "I can step out of this game with the same respect and feeling baseball men have for Quinn."

Charlie Grimm, former Milwaukee manager, said that as long as Quinn guides the Braves "Milwaukee will never have to worry about a first division ball club."

A 100 per cent kill of lamprey (inset) was recorded during this test in Michigan.

A 100 per cent kill of lamprey (inset) was recorded during this test in Michigan.

School Board Studies Improvement Financing

The Washington C. H. Board of Education transacted routine business at a regular meeting Monday night and then adjourned until Tuesday, Nov. 25, to consider the matter of financing additional improvements and equipment at new elementary schools and additions.

Superintendent W. A. Smith reported to the board on a recent conference with the board's bonding attorneys on procedures necessary to secure funds for payment of outstanding bills for sidewalks and driveways and to purchase equipment for playgrounds along with folding chairs, public address systems, furnishings and classroom equipment which were not covered in the $645,000 building bond issues.

While the board may issue a bond in the amount of one-tenth of one per cent of the total tax valuation for this purpose, it has been suggested that it borrow $23,000 for one year. Then, if the old East-side school property can be sold at the figure the board hopes to receive, a portion of the proceeds could be used to retire the loan.

If, at the end of a year, the abandoned school site has not been sold, the board could then issue a bond, maturing in 10 years, without the necessity of a popular vote.

ISSUANCE of such a bond, it was pointed out, would not increase taxes. It is estimated that the amount necessary to pay the first year's principal and interest, if the bond were to be sold, would be $3,800 and this amount would decrease each year as the interest became less.

Board members made it clear that the need for additional funds for the new buildings was not because of lack of prior planning, but because an emergency furnace replacement at the high school cost approximately $17,000 more than it probably would have had the board been able to wait and lump this project with other construction and improvements.

The furnace work had to be done in the fall of 1957 on the order of the state fire marshal's office and, as a necessary precaution, standby fuel oil equipment was added at additional expense to insure operation in case of any gas shortage.

The board's attorneys will draw up the necessary resolutions for borrowing as soon as they receive a formal financial statement from Clerk Fred Rost.

STATE EXAMINER Robert Barnes, currently auditing the city school district's books, paid a "courtesy" visit to the board Monday night and expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the superintendent, clerk-treasurer and office secretaries in the audit.

He answered a number of routine questions and complimented the board on the completeness of its minutes.

Rost presented a financial report on the athletic fund for the period of March 1, 1958, through Oct. 31 which listed a balance of $465.19 at the beginning of the audit, receipts of $10,381.28 during the period and expenditures of $7,652.28. This left a balance of $3,194.19 on Oct. 31. The report does not include the Circleville or alumni football games.

A more detailed report on receipts and expenditures in each phase of the athletic program is being prepared by the Athletic Board and Coach Fred Domenico.

THE SUPERINTENDENT presented a brief report or the State Board of Education meeting on Nov. 10 and presented a digest of recommendations by the advisory committee on curriculum and teaching.

There was also a detailed report on recommendations made at a general meeting of local teachers on Oct. 8. Both reports were accepted for further study by the board.

Board President Elmer Reed reported on legislative proposals made at a recent meeting of the Ohio School Boards Assn. which he attended as a representative of the city district.

In other action, the board set up a $25 petty cash fund for smoother operation of the school library.

Paid construction account bills totaling $31,989.45.

Hunters Are Charged With 13 Violations

Fayette County's total number of charged hunting violations rose to 43 during the first three days of the hunting season as 13 more came before Acting Judge E. S. Woodmansee in Municipal Court Tuesday.

All of the charges were for hunting on land without first obtaining written permission from the owner.

Only five of those charged appeared in court. The other nine forfeited $20 bail bonds.

Those appearing were all from Cincinnati or vicinity. They were: Walter Herget, Joseph L. Peirman, Jr., Joseph L. Peirman, Sr., and Dan Clayton, all of Cincinnati, and Arnold Schmalz, Mt. Healthy.

Persons who forfeited their bonds were:

Gary Grose, Minford; Harvey Hook, Portsmouth; Clarence, Montgomery, Minford; Charles Bernert, Cincinnati; Roy Conover, Mt. Orab; Morris Lunsford, Middletown; Robert Morris, Trenton; and George Morris, Middletown.

County Industries Take Large Share Of Safety Awards

Fayette County industries received more than their share of awards at the tri-county safety awards banquet in Xenia Monday night.

Seven of the 10 firms receiving group awards are from Fayette and six of the 13 companies which haven't lost any time during the past year because of injury are in Fayette.

The seven firms awarded first place in their respective groups are Sears Roebuck & Co., J. C. Penney Co., Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Craig Brothers, National Cash Register Co., Med-O-Pure Dairy and Armo Drainage and Metal Products.

The first five also received awards for not having lost any time due to accidents. Brown-Brockmeyer Co. was also recognized in that group.

The annual awards are based on comparison of industries in Fayette, Clinton and Greene counties.

Thirty-eight persons from Fayette County attended the dinner. Among them were City Manager David Foell and his wife.

James E. Gheen, a New York City, consultant, was the speaker for the evening.

Car Pushed Into Tree

A Washington C. H. man's car was pushed into a tree Monday afternoon when the emergency brake on the car parked behind it slipped, causing it to roll into the first car.

Chester Surface, Greentown, Ind., said he set his emergency brake when he parked the car but it must have slipped loose, causing his car to roll into the car of William G. Derr, 161 Eastview Rd.

Derr's car, parked on the east side of Court St., near North St., was damaged slightly in the front and rear.

Boy, 13, Injured When Rides Bike Into Turning Truck

Larry Armbrust, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Armbrust, 526 Highland Ave., received a broken right arm and head bruises Tuesday morning when he rode his bicycle into the side of a truck, as it was making a right turn, police said.

Robert Andrews, 41, of 426 Lewis St., said he had stopped for the red light at the corner of North and Market Sts. and was just starting to turn onto Market when the boy ran into the right side of the truck, police said.

The boy was treated and released from Memorial Hospital.

Clinton County Man Files for Bankruptcy

CINCINNATI (AP)—A resident of Clinton County filed a petition in bankruptcy Monday in U.S. District Court.

Ralph Inlow, New Vienna farm laborer, reported liabilities of $2,458 and assets of $672.

Cleveland, Ohio was named for one of its founders, Gen. Moses Cleveland. Somewhere the "a" was dropped from the name.

Man Mourns His Error in Child's Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A widow grieved for her dead daughter today, and a divorced father of five told police:

"I hope whoever reads about this don't (sic) make the mistake I did."

The father, Woodrow Wright, apparently referred to a 20-gauge shotgun left in a back bedroom of his house in Columbus. His 9-year-old son, Robert, found the gun Monday when he and four other youngsters were alarmed by a noise. Robert loaded it and was knocked down by the recoil when it discharged.

The blast fatally wounded Carol Ann Green, a 10-year-old neighbor. She had come to the house with her 9-year-old sister to go to school with the three younger Wright children.

Wright was already at work when the shooting occurred. He rushed home when his 11-year-old daughter telephoned him, found Carol and called police.

Police said he is being held for investigation of contributing to the neglect of children because the youngsters were left without supervision from 6:50 a. m., when Wright went to work, until they left for school.

Wright told police he has had custody of the children since his divorce four years ago. He has a baby sitter for the evening, he added.

Ohio Sailor Accused In Texas Robbery Case

MARFA, Tex. (AP)—A sailor from Columbiana, Ohio, awaits trial here on armed robbery charges. The sheriff said the Ohioan, Charles Shreffler, 18, another sailor from Key West, Fla., Naval Base, Ronald Large, 19, of Florence, Calif., and a Georgia prison escapee, Donald Coussey, were identified by a storekeeper robbed of $77 here Nov. 3.

Belle Aire PTA Card Party To Be Wednesday Night

Members of half a dozen committees today are getting the Dayton Power and Light Co. auditorium ready for the benefit card party to be held there at 8 p. m. Wednesday by the Belle Aire Parent-Teacher Assn.

Gene Ladrach heads the committee with the big job—setting up the tables and chairs and getting the hall ready.

The committee in charge of the refreshments (which will be available all evening for a price) faces a busy day Wednesday bringing in the soft drinks and potato chips and making the coffee. Members of the PTA will spend much of the day making candy, which also will be sold.

The committee headed by Verne Haugen has just about completed its task of getting the prizes, which range all the way from turkeys and hams to jewelry. They were donated to the cause by merchants.

Richard Arnott is the general chairman.

Although most of the committee heads are men, they are getting a lot of help from their wives.

Maurice Hopkins, the publicity chairman, said (through Mrs. Hopkins) that 50 tables will be set up for the card players. There will be tables for bridge, canasta and euchre.

Proceeds from the party will go to buy "extras" for the new school.

Gunfire Ebbs, Schools On Quemoxy to Resume

TAIPEI (AP)—The offshore island shooting lapsed into silence again today and the Nationalists on much-battered Quemoxy made plans to reopen primary schools.

One school in the center of the island already has resumed classes despite the bombardment from Communist coastal guns on alternate days. Nationalist authorities said 20 primary schools would start a delayed fall semester Thursday.

Mainly About People

Charles Franklin is the name chosen by Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn for their son born Saturday in Memorial Hospital.

Spacemen May Zip to Mars In Casual Shirtsleeve Garb

NEW YORK (AP)—Space pilots may whip off to Mars or the moon in their shirtsleeves, scientists said today.

The big luxuries of the trip may be only a shave and a change of underclothes from time to time.

This was the rugged future of man in space suggested by a panel of space doctors and engineers at the 13th annual meeting of the American Rocket Society.

Whatever the space pilot is allowed to wear, his worst moments may come at the beginning and end of his trip.

It is then he must withstand the enormous stresses of blast off acceleration and the breaking of re-entry into the earth's atmosphere.

He is scarcely likely to enjoy either ordeal, said Col. John P. Stapp, U.S. Air Force researcher who has tested these stresses on the human body in rocket sled work.

A new space capsule, being built at the Air Force School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, was described by Capt. Willard R. Hawkins and Dr. George T. Hafty.

It will serve as a training capsule for future space fliers and as a research chamber, they said. It will incorporate many items learned in earlier space flight experiments.

Food may be one of the biggest morale items of the space flier. In simulated space trips, volunteers said baby food and other unattractive items did their jobs poorly. They were demoralized. Some even became nauseated.

In fact, a high caloric diet with exotic foods, plenty of fruit juices and water, was the biggest morale factor in the first seven-day pre-tended space flight, the scientists said.

School Board Studies Improvement Financing

The Washington C. H. Board of Education transacted routine business at a regular meeting Monday night and then adjourned until Tuesday, Nov. 25, to consider the matter of financing additional improvements and equipment at new elementary schools and additions.

Superintendent W. A. Smith reported to the board on a recent conference with the board's bonding attorneys on procedures necessary to secure funds for payment of outstanding bills for sidewalk and driveways and to purchase equipment for playgrounds along with folding chairs, public address systems, furnishings and classroom equipment which were not covered in the $645,000 building bond issues.

While the board may issue a bond in the amount of one-tenth of one percent of the total tax valuation for this purpose, it has been suggested that it borrow $23,000 for one year. Then, if the old East-side school property can be sold at the figure the board hopes to receive, a portion of the proceeds could be used to retire the loan.

If, at the end of a year, the abandoned school site has not been sold, the board could then issue a bond, maturing in 10 years, without the necessity of a popular vote.

ISSUANCE of such a bond, it was pointed out, would not increase taxes. It is estimated that the amount necessary to pay the first year's principal and interest, if the bond were to be sold, would be $3,800 and this amount would decrease each year as the interest became less.

Board members made it clear that the need for additional funds for the new buildings was not because of lack of prior planning, but because an emergency furnace replacement at the high school cost approximately $17,000 more than it probably would have had the board been able to wait and lump this project with other construction and improvements.

The furnace work had to be done in the fall of 1957 on the order of the state fire marshal's office and, as a necessary precaution, standby fuel oil equipment was added at additional expense to insure operation in case of any gas shortage.

The board's attorneys will draw up the necessary resolutions for borrowing as soon as they receive a formal financial statement from Clerk Fred Rost.

STATE EXAMINER Robert Barnes, currently auditing the city school district's books, paid a "courtesy" visit to the board Monday night and expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the superintendent, clerk-treasurer and office secretaries in the audit.

He answered a number of routine questions and complimented the board on the completeness of its minutes.

Rost presented a financial report on the athletic fund for the period of March 1, 1958, through Oct. 31 which listed a balance of $465.19 at the beginning of the audit, receipts of $10,381.28 during the period and expenditures of $7,652.28. This left a balance of $3,194.19 on Oct. 31. The report does not include the Circleville or alumni football games.

A more detailed report on receipts and expenditures in each phase of the athletic program is being prepared by the Athletic Board and Coach Fred Domenico.

THE SUPERINTENDENT presented a brief report or the State Board of Education meeting on Nov. 10 and presented a digest of recommendations by the advisory committee on curriculum and teaching.

There was also a detailed report on recommendations made at a general meeting of local teachers on Oct. 8. Both reports were accepted for further study by the board.

Board President Elmer Reed reported on legislative proposals made at a recent meeting of the Ohio School Boards Assn. which he attended as a representative of the city district.

In other action, the board set up a $25 petty cash fund for smoother operation of the school library.

Authorized the superintendent to attend meetings of state and national school administrators in Cleveland and Atlantic City.

Paid current bills totaling $7,854.85.

Paid construction account bills totaling $31,989.45.

Hunters Are Charged With 13 Violations

Fayette County's total number of charged hunting violations rose to 43 during the first three days of the hunting season as 13 more came before Acting Judge E. S. Woodmansee in Municipal Court Tuesday.

All of the charges were for hunting on land without first obtaining written permission from the owner.

Only five of those charged appeared in court. The other nine forfeited $20 bail bonds.

Those appearing were all from Cincinnati or vicinity. They were: Walter Herget, Joseph L. Peirman, Jr., Joseph L. Peirman, Sr., and Dan Clayton, all of Cincinnati; and Arnold Schmalz, Mt. Healthy.

Persons who forfeited their bonds were: Gary Grose, Minford; Harvey Hook, Portsmouth; Clarence Mongery, Minford; Charles Bernert, Cincinnati; Roy Conover, Mt. Orab; Morris Lunsford, Middletown; Robert Morris, Trenton; and George Morris, Middletown.

County Industries Take Large Share Of Safety Awards

Fayette County industries received more than their share of awards at the tri-county safety awards banquet in Xenia Monday night.

Seven of the 10 firms receiving group awards are from Fayette and six of the 13 companies which haven't lost any time during the past year because of injury are in Fayette.

The seven firms awarded first place in their respective groups are Sears Roebuck & Co., J. C. Penney Co., Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Craig Brothers, National Cash Register Co., Med-O-Pure Dairy and Armo Drainage and Metal Products.

The first five also received awards for not having lost any time due to accidents. Brown-Brockmeyer Co. was also recognized in that group.

The annual awards are based on comparison of industries in Fayette, Clinton and Greene counties. Thirty-eight persons from Fayette County attended the dinner. Among them were City Manager David Poell and his wife.

James E. Gheen, a New York City, consultant, was the speaker for the evening.

Car Pushed Into Tree

A Washington C. H. man's car was pushed into a tree Monday afternoon when the emergency brake on the car parked behind it slipped, causing it to roll into the first car.

Chester Surface, Greentown, Ind., said he set his emergency brake when he parked the car but it must have slipped loose, causing his car to roll into the car of William G. Derr, 161 Eastview Rd.

Derr's car, parked on the east side of Court St., near North St., was damaged slightly in the front and rear.

Boy, 13, Injured When Rides Bike Into Turning Truck

Larry Armbrust, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Armbrust, 526 Highland Ave., received a broken right arm and head bruises Tuesday morning when he rode his bicycle into the side of a truck, as it was making a right turn, police said.

Robert Andrews, 41, of 426 Lew-st. St., said he had stopped for the red light at the corner of North and Market Sts. and was just starting to turn onto Market when the boy ran into the right side of the truck, police said.

The boy was treated and released from Memorial Hospital.

Man Mourns His Error in Child's Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A widow grieved for her dead daughter today, and a divorced father of five told police:

"I hope whoever reads about this don't (sic) make the mistake I did."

The father, Woodrow Wright, apparently referred to a 20-gauge shotgun left in a back bedroom of his house in Columbus. His 9-year-old son, Robert, found the gun Monday when he and four other youngsters were alarmed by a noise. Robert loaded it and was knocked down by the recoil when it discharged.

The blast fatally wounded Carol Ann Green, a 10-year-old neighbor. She had come to the house with her 9-year-old sister to go to school with the three younger Wright children.

Wright was already at work when the shooting occurred. He rushed home when his 11-year-old daughter telephoned him, found Carol and called police.

Police said he is being held for investigation of contributing to the neglect of children because the youngsters were left without supervision from 6:50 a.m., when Wright went to work, until they left for school.

Wright told police he has had custody of the children since his divorce four years ago. He has a baby sitter for the evening, he added.
